Mercantile Summary.

THE Banque d'Hochelaga has made a final call of fifteen per cent.

The London City Council has granted exemption from taxes for five years to Messrs. Wm. Beck & Co., who are in consequence to erect a cigar-box and veneering factory, in which 120 hands will be employed.

THE best financing that ever has been or that ever will be done, is that which enables men and women to live within their income, however small that income may be. That is the only honest living, the only safe living, and in the end the only successful living.

A. BLUMENTHAL, a Montreal clothier who recently obtained an extension of time, claiming a surplus of $3,000 to 4,000, has been unable to carry out the terms of his settlement, and a demand having been made upon him to assign, he has trusted his estate to Messrs. Moss & Gaunt, representing his two principal creditors.

WM. HART, a general dealer of Guysboro', N.S., of a good many years standing, and father of Mr. Hart of Bremner, Hart & Co., of Halifax, lately failed, is so seriously crippled through endorsements to the extent of $9,000 for his son, that he has been forced to assign.—The arrangement proposed by Messrs. H. Haswell & Co., wholesale druggists of Montreal, to pay their creditors 35 cents on the dollar, has not met with general acceptance, as was anticipated, and the estate is advertised by the assignee to be sold by auction.

THE widow of Jean Demers, of Gentilly, Que., a storekeeper recently deceased, has made an assignment of the estate to a firm of accountants in Montreal. Her late husband had been unfortunate in business on two occasions before.—C. D. Graham, jeweller, Ottawa, has failed. He owes $3,000 nearly, assets $3,500 nominal. An offer of 40 cents has not been accepted.—P. Thompson, a harnessmaker of Douglas, Ont., is reported as having left for the States, leaving unsettled debts to the amount of about $6,000.—Henry Ponton, a hotelkeeper of Agnes, Que., it is said, has made a similar move.

THE Nor'-Wester, which is the name of a new paper, published at Calgary, N.W.T.—the title being that of the one started twenty odd years ago by Messrs. Buckingham & Ross, and afterwards owned by Dr. Schultz—contains a notice of the dissolution of G. C. King, Wm. Winder, F. S. Stimson and Cassils, Stimson & Co., who were associated under the firm name of G. C. King & Co., and a notice, dated June 2nd, that G. C. King and F. S. Stimson would carry on the business at Calgary, Red Deer and Silver City under the style of King & Co.
