LYCEUM NOTES

St. Mary's Lyceum experimented, with gratifying success, with another feature of its work on the regular meeting night, Thursday, of last week. The stag luncheon, held at Watson's Cafe, was attended by upwards of 75, and proved a very effective agent in bringing the Catholic young men into more intimate contact than is possible at regular meetings. The luncheon was a plain meal, served at the supper hour, and quite in accordance with Lenten regulations.

The after-dinner remarks were in excellent taste throughout and gave evidence of an abundance of material for speakers among the Catholic young men. President T. J. Coyle, at the head table, kept the gathering in good humor while keeping the programme in lively motion. The Secretary's report for the past year was first read, after which remarks on the programme and possibilities for the future were made by T. J. Murray, First Vice-President; H. R. McCabe, Second Vice-President, and F. E. Cantwell, Treasurer.

Rev. Bro. Edward, very appropriately in recognition of the approach of St. Patrick's Day, related an incident of Paris among scoffers of religion, in which a young Irish lad, McMahon, figured as the hero. It is rarely that a story with a serious moral is heard while provoking such incidental amusement. Thomas J. Molloy, who responded to an informal toast to the Ladies, kept the fellows in hearty laughter with his Keltic wit. His tribute to Woman contained many thoughts of lofty conception and purest chivalry. Harold Conway in a few impromptu remarks impressed everyone as the most promising young speaker of the Lyceum, and the remarks of James Cunnin were all too brief.

Several very pleasing musical numbers were given between the remarks of the speakers. Frank Flanagan and Austin Donnelly sang and were obliged to respond to encores, and several members of the Lyceum orchestra, including E. and W. Taylor, violin and cello, T. Rogers, flute, and W. Perkins, piano, contributed the instrumental numbers. John Coyle provoked great fun with some songs and stories in Scotch dialect.

The most interesting item brought out in the Secretary's report was the fact that of the 150 addresses left by Catholic young men who had been present at one or more of the weekly meetings held since last October, less than two score of these were previously affiliated with any other Catholic society in the city.

A full meeting of the Dramatic Branch has been called for Sunday afternoon to re-arrange the schedule of regular practices for "The Malediction," to be presented after Easter.

The Lyceum orchestra assisted at the St. Patrick's Day concert, given in Y.M.C.A. hall on Saturday evening under the auspices of the Catholic Club. The orchestra was in good form, with its leader, James Stack, conducting.

PIANOS

Those who buy a piano ought to pay as much attention to the record and reputation of a piano as the piano itself. They ought to pay more attention to its musical qualities than to the case.

The Mason & Risch Piano

Is a musical instrument before it is an article of furniture, yet it is an instrument that would beautify any room. No piano has a better record.
