

5. Grain Industry Infrastructure

Junta do Trigo sells to the mills. There have been no changes to the country's grain industry infrastructure.

6. Government Policies Affecting Grain and Agriculture

Heavy subsidies to millers make flour and bread cheap, thereby increasing consumption. However, subsidies are coming off flour gradually making bread more expensive, decreasing consumption.

7. Canadian Grain Marketing Prospects

Marketing possibilities for Canadian special crops: None.