

improve their competence in the English, French or the Russian language for a total of 80 person-months. On the Canadian side, participants are to be financially supported by the Department of External Affairs. It is agreed that the post-doctoral scholars should have received their Ph.D. or Candidate of sciences degree, as a rule, no more than five years before applying;

3. Each side may at its own expense send up to two representatives annually to the host country to familiarize themselves with the living and study conditions of exchange participants;

C. Exchanges Between Canadian and Soviet
Institutions of Higher Learning and other Educational Exchanges

1. Both sides noted with satisfaction the increasing cooperation between institutions of higher learning of each country;

2. The Canadian side informed the Soviet side of the interest of the Universities of Manitoba and Alberta in conducting exchanges with the University of Lvov;