

(c) the operation of any electrical power or transmission works connecting any province with any other or others of the provinces or extending beyond the limits of any province, or serving two or more provinces;

(d) mining;

(e) the operation of any shipyard.

(ii) any other employer who is so designated by the National Board, either specially or as a member of a class so designated, pursuant to the provisions of these by-laws.

(d) "Order" means the War Time Wages and Cost of Living Bonus Order (order in council P.C. 8253 of October 24, 1941, and any amendments thereto).

(e) "Regional Board" means a Regional War Labour Board;

(f) "the administration of the order" includes the administration of order in council, P.C. 7679 of the 4th October, 1941, and the administration of the Fair Wages and Hours of Labour Act, 1935.

(2) Any employer, other than a national employer, who employs persons in two or more regions, shall, for the purposes of the administration of the order, be deemed to be an employer carrying on business as in each of such regions in respect of his employees in each of such regions.

(3) Other words and expressions used in these by-laws shall, unless the context otherwise requires, have the same meaning as in the order.

The National Board

2. (1) The meetings of the National Board shall be held at the call of the chairman, or in his absence at the call of the executive committee, at least once in each month unless otherwise directed by the National Board.

(2) The chairman, or in his absence such other member of the executive committee as he may designate, shall preside at any meeting of the National Board.

(3) The decision of the majority of the National Board at any meeting shall be the decision of the National Board and in the event of a tie the chairman shall have a casting vote.

(4) There shall be a secretary of the National Board who shall keep the minutes of the meetings and the records of the National Board.

3. (1) The chairman, or in his absence such other member of the executive committee as he may designate, shall preside at any meeting of the executive committee.

(2) The decision of the majority of the members of the executive committee present at any meeting shall be the decision of the executive committee.

(3) The secretary of the National Board shall be the secretary of the executive committee and shall keep the minutes of the meetings and the records of the executive committee and shall conduct such correspondence and perform such other duties as the executive committee may direct.

4. (1) The executive committee shall,—

(a) through the chief executive officer, control and direct the staff in the office of the National Board or assigned to the administration of the order in respect of national employers;

(b) report to the National Board on such matters and at such times as the National Board may require.

(2) In any case where any immediate action by the National Board is urgently required and where the executive committee is of opinion that it is not in the public interest to delay such action until the matter can be referred to the National Board the executive committee may act for the National Board and for such purpose may exercise all powers conferred by the order or by these by-laws on the National Board and shall report such action to the National Board at the next meeting thereof.

5. The chief executive officer of the National Board shall carry out the directions of and shall perform such duties as are assigned to him by the executive committee.

6. The chairman, any member of the executive committee, the chief executive officer or the secretary of the National Board may sign any document or communication on behalf of such board.

Regional Boards

7. A regional board may make such rules as may seem expedient for the conduct of its business and proceedings not inconsistent with the provisions of the order or of these by-laws.

8. (1) A regional board shall exercise control and direction over the staff in the office of the regional board or assigned to the administration of the order in respect of employers other than national employers in the region with respect to which such regional board is appointed.

(2) A regional board shall comply with any request of and shall give effect to any order or direction by the National Board.

Administration

9. The National Board shall

(1) control and direct the administration of the order in respect of national employers;

(2) supervise the regional boards in the administration of the order in respect of employers other than national employers;

(3) from time to time issue such rulings and instructions to the regional boards or prescribe such form or forms for use by the National Board or regional boards as may be necessary to ensure uniformity in the administration of the order.

10. The National Board may from time to time designate any employer or any class of employers, not included in the classes of national employers enumerated in these by-laws, as a national employer or as national employers.

11. (1) A regional board shall be charged with all duties and responsibilities in respect of the administration of the order in respect of employers, other than national employers, carrying on business within the region with respect to which such regional board is appointed.

(2) For such purpose a regional board may act for the National Board and shall perform all duties imposed upon the National Board and may, subject to the provisions of these by-laws, exercise all powers conferred on the National Board by the order.

(3) A regional board shall be governed in the performance of such duties or in the