Dear Sir Arthur,

I have your kind favour of yesterday's date in which you reply to mine re "Saskatchewan" and I note your wishes in the matter which I shall comply with at once.

Re "Letterheads" I did leave a small supply one day with Mrs Chesley as I thought you might care to use it, but I regret to hear that Mrs Chesley is unwell, and in consequence, I am sending a little here-with which I shall be glad to renew on request.

Believe me, Sir Arthur,
Faithfully
