

I am quite sure the terms of management of such a building could be made agreeable to all concerned.

The Governors are aware that the building site under consideration is that of the "Joseph Property" on which at present stands the McCord Museum. As this particular site has been set aside for a Convocation Hall there is, I think, no question but that they would consider this the most suitable location for the proposed War Memorial.

Yours faithfully,

Principal.