O. H. BELCHER.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"BELCHER'S ALMANACK.—This indispensable Annual has just been issued from the press. It is neatly got up, and its pages are filled with the usual amount of useful knowledge. Interleaved copies, nicely bound in embossed cloth, are just the thing for Counting-rooms and Parlors."—Morning Chronicle.

"BELCHER'S FARMER'S ALMANACK.—This old favorite comes out in a style well calculated to sustain its long standing reputation."—Acadian Recorder.

"BELCHER'S FARMER'S ALMANACK has been received. It more than sustains the high character of its predecessors for its graphical notices and correctness of information. The bound and interleaved copies contain a beautiful engraving."—Presbyterian Witness.

"Our thanks are due to the publisher of Belcher's Farmer's Almanack for a copy of his Annual, bound and interleaved. This Almanack has been so long before the public as the best publication of the kind, that commendation appears superfluous. As a business directory, a calendar and book of reference for all matters relating to Provincial Affairs, it is unsurpassed, and this year we notice many useful improvements. No family or counting-house should be without one. It may be procured at all the bookstores throughout the city and country."—British Colonist.

"BELCHER'S FARMER'S ALMANACK.—A copy of this carefully compiled Annual has been laid upon our table. It is enough to say of it that it sustains its character for excellence. It is, in our opinion, decidedly the best Almanack that issues from the Nova-Scotia press, and we cheerfully recommend it as such to our readers. The bound and interleaved copies contain a beautiful engraving."—Provincial Witness.

• • The bound and interleaved copies will contain a highly finished Engraving of "A RAILROAD SCENE."

W. Grant, Jr., Bookseller and Stationer, 59 George Street, Halifax, will promptly attend to all orders for the above Almanack.
