

LIST OF THE CREW
OF THE PRINCE ALBERT DISCOVERY SHIP.

CHARLES CODRINGTON FORSYTH, R. N., COMMANDER.

Name.		Age.	Pay per Month.	Character.
		Years	£ s. d.
William Kay -	Chief Mate	53	9 0 0
William Wilson -	Second do.	37	7 0 0	Hardy and fearless.
Charles Rae -	Boatswain	37	4 10 0	Very good, and capable.
Peter Mitchell -	Carpenter	52	5 0 0	Good, steady man,
John Smith -	Steward	28	4 0 0	Honest and trustworthy.
James Glennie -	Cook	45	5 0 0	Good & clean, & a sea-
Robert Brown -	Seaman	48	4 0 0	Good, steady man. [man.
James Watt -	-	35	4 0 0	Good, but rather timid.
A. M'Cullum -	-	47	4 0 0	Good and steady.
William Duguid* -	-	31	4 0 0	Do. do., and intelligent.
Alexander Anderson -	-	23	4 0 0	Hardworking and good.
James Fox -	-	26	3 9 0	Sick; discharged into H. M.S. "Resolute."
George Massie -	-	34	3 9 0	Very good, and steady.
Robert Grate* -	-	24	3 9 0	Do., do., and intelligent.
Henry Anderson* -	-	26	3 9 0	Do., do.
Alexander Mathieson -	-	29	3 9 0	Bold, fearless, and good.

WILLIAM PARKER SNOW.

* These three men understood navigation. The last five of the seamen had not been so much experienced as the others in the ice, and, consequently, had less pay.

THE END.

LONDON :
SPOTTISWOODES and SHAW,
New-street-Square.