

CLIFF EDGE WINS AT BLUE BONNETS

Featureless Card Produces Close
Finishes and Interesting Races.

CHOCORUA OVER JUMPS

Toddling, 'Outsider' in Race for Maiden Jockeys, is Surprise of the Day.

MONTREAL, June 9.—It was another day for the first choices at the Blue Bonnets. The majority of the first choices moved down in front, adding to the success of the meeting. The card, which a featureless one, was productive of close finishes and interesting races.

The first race, a condition stake for 3-year-olds and up, was won by Cliff Edge, who was ridden by H. Watt. He was a surprise of the day, as he was an outsider in the race. He was a 100 to 1 shot, and he won by a head.

After winning his maiden race on Tuesday, Watt was presented with a gold scarf pin by the Montreal Jockey Club.

The second race, a condition stake for 3-year-olds and up, was won by Chocorua, who was ridden by H. Watt. He was a surprise of the day, as he was an outsider in the race. He was a 100 to 1 shot, and he won by a head.

HORSES SELLING WELL
AT MAHER'S EXCHANGE.

Trade has never been better at Maher's Horse Exchange than during the last week. The stock on hand was large and the quality could not be surpassed. The buyers were almost entirely local, but a large number of horses changed hands. Yesterday's auction sale was not as brisk as those of the previous week, but the demand is as great and our shippers have notified us that they have no intention of letting up until all have been supplied. Fresh shipments will be on hand for the mid-week sale on Thursday next.

Some representative buyers were: Canadian Transfer Co., W. H. McDowell, Mount Dennis Brick Co., Ltd., E. G. Law, W. Harris, H. Jones, B. Alexander, Ed. McNeil, Devonshire Mfg. Co., J. Brennan, Robt. Madill, J. Downey, Jas. Leonard, W. Son, Lyle, Badgerow, Vinegar Co., J. McPherson, Chas. Shalek, J. A. Fuller, Abel Boyd.

The opening of the Connaught Park Jockey Club meeting takes place at Ottawa next Saturday.

The Inaugural Handicap is the feature of the opening day at the King Edward Jockey Club, on Saturday next. Veneta Storme, with 119 lbs., is top weight.

The stable of R. J. Mackenzie has been reduced to ten head, which it must be presumed, represent well-tried material. The others were disposed of, one lot of eight being sold in a jump for $1500 on the principle that they were not the kind wanted. It would be real economy to get rid of them at once. Half of the stable now consists of two-year-olds, named as follows: Super, Pulsion, Superiority, Bumps and Maid of Norfolk. The older horses are: Buckhorn, Helen, Barbee, Milton Street, Siltrix and Adelaide T. They are also well engaged in Kentucky, but will come on the Canadian circuit for the Fort Erie meeting, to remain for the season.
