Whitted to reach first and Evers third. Collins, in trying to field the ball, turned his ankle and play was stopped for a few minutes. Barry went to second and play was resumed. Then came the first real cheer of the Boston fans. Schmidt shoved Barry, who threw the Boston first baseman out as Evers crossed the plate. Whitted moved to second on the out and was left there when Shawkey threw out Gowdy. Up to this time the Athletics had made five hits without scoring, while Boston had made one. Barry's first and only hit of the series in opening the first inning. It was a single which Maranville could not handle in time to beat the Athletics' shortstop. Barry went to second on a single, and Evers to third. Murphy was an easy out. Evers to Schmidt, Shawkey moving up to third. Oldring swung at wide balls and was out on strikes.

VARSAITY TRACK TEAM.
Varsity track men are putting on the finishing touches in their training for the Intercollegiate track meet to be held at the stadium on Friday afternoon. Captain Bill Brown is of the opinion that he will have a team which will add another victory to the already long list of Varsity track championships when his boys stack up against aggregations representing Quakers and McGill at the M. A. A. grounds in Montreal. The Intercollegiate events. Practically all of last year's men, with the exception of McGowan and Bricker, are out again to help their alma mater, and with a promising batch of new material, it is expected that a strong aggregation will go down to win the Montreal trophy in the own camping grounds. A dark horse who was working out yesterday heaved the discus over 100 feet, and he will be in line for the other weight events. All the other departments are strong. There are a number of new men who have shown a high talent within the last week that some of the old members of the team are worrying about their chances of getting to Montreal.

FALL AND WINTER SHIRTS.
Hudson Bay, according to the weather man, was responsible for the recent sudden drop in temperature which provided an unpleasant change from the ideal fall days Toronto has been enjoying. It reminded everyone, too, that the rigors of winter are not far away, and that it is time to prepare for unexpected movements on the part of the frost king.
Always to the fore with supplies that anticipate the season, Hickey's, 97 Yonge street, is offering an unusually attractive line in flannel shirts for fall and winter wear. Quality is their keynote, and the choice in separate collars and soft cuffs will be appreciated by smart dressers. Prices range from $2 to $3.50, adding to their popular appeal.
