

BYE-LAW No. 7.

A BYE-LAW for the purpose of Organizing a Fire Department in the City of New Westminster.

WHEREAS it is expedient and necessary that a Fire Department should be organized in New Westminster,

It is therefore ordered that the Municipal Council of New Westminster, constituted and assembled under and by virtue of a Proclamation having the force of Law, issued by His Excellency the Governor of the Colony of British Columbia, on the sixteenth day of July, in the year 1860, and in the twenty-fourth year of Her Majesty's reign, and which said Proclamation is known as the "New Westminster Municipal Act, 1860,"

I. That the Fire Department shall consist of a Chief and Assistant Engineer, with one or more Companies, the Officers of said Companies being a Captain and First and Second Lieutenants, and such other officers as the Companies, when organized, may deem necessary.

II. The members of the Companies shall be enrolled on a Roll, to be kept by the Clerk of the Municipal Council.

III. The first election for the offices of Chief Engineer, and Assistant Engineer, shall take place within ten days from the date of this Bye-Law becoming law; and the persons elected shall hold office for one year, and until their successors are elected. All subsequent elections shall take place yearly, on the sixth and seventh days of August.
