

Time of Peace, and of Privateers in Time of War *. And not only so, but that Fort Orleans at the Mouth of the Mississippi will be invested by a Force too strong to be resisted; in which Case the dreadful Depredations, and inhuman Murders committed on the Back Settlements of Virginia and Georgia will be retaliated by the Indians themselves.

At this Time the French possess a Country along the Banks of the Mississippi for 900 Leagues, and which far exceeds Canada both in the Temperature of the Climate, the Bignity of the Soil, and abounds not only with the Conveniencies of Life, but likewise the Blessings of Nature; all which they expose almost to certain Destruction, as their Fleet is unable to support them.

It is the Saying of Demosthenes while haranguing the Athenians, “ Philip is not your “ Enemy, O Athenians! the Athenians are “ only Enemies to themselves *.” The French are not our Enemies so much as we are Foes to ourselves if, when we have it in our Power to secure the Blessings of Peace for many Ages, we deliver up Canada, the very Ground and Cause of the War: If the Crown of Great Britain relinquish their Advantages at this Time, and give up what the Wisdom of their Ministry and

C 2

* It is a Sepulchre for the British Merchant Vessels, no less than Twelve Hundred of these having been carried in there since the Beginning of the War.

† Demost. Philippic. 2.