

our education, rest assured that our best wishes for the happiness of yourself and amiable family accompany your Excellency.

"Di tibi dent annos, nam de te cætera sumes."

REPLY.

GENTLEMEN,

An address from those who are now experiencing the blessings of the extensive and liberal education, which they have received at Upper Canada College, cannot but be received by me with the greatest pleasure and satisfaction.

You are among the first who have demonstrated the essential benefits to society which are derived from the establishment of this Royal Institution. May you also ever take the lead in this Province as Christians, as Citizens, as Patriots, as members of a community, "qui consulta patrum, qui leges juraque sercant."

I thank you for the kind expression of your wishes for myself and family; and be assured that I shall always watch with great interest the progress and welfare of those who have been students at Upper Canada College.
