

delegates, p. 100
 of the bishops,
 of education, p.
 of seminaries of la affairs, p. 108
 Methodist confer-
 sh conference on
 , p. 126; to the
 eedings, p. 132;
 , p. 134; revised,
 respecting local
 brogated, p. 143;
 51; rule for con-
 m established at

; state of things
 159; Indian mis-
 ndition and eha-
 ; John Steward
 of his labors, p. o conference, p.
 d effects, p. 175;
 ssionary Society
 England, p. 180;
 lass., and Chili-
 . 183; Wyandot
 y South Carolina
 y and Pittsburgh,
 ; character and
 ssion, p. 193; its on, p. 198; Che-
 Canada, p. 209;
 p. 211; in Upper
 county, Virginia,
 on River district,
 eaching, p. 215;
 umbers, p. 216;
 ed by the labors
 Men's Missionary
 sm in Jackson's
 ; in Cumberland
 , p. 230; Bishop
 . Jones's letter,
 Honnes, p. 238;
 land, p. 240; in
 district, p. 242;
 andler, p. 243; of

delegates, p. 252;
 254; address of said conference, p. 255; of Mr. Reece, p. 259; bishops' communication to the conference, p. 261; report of the committee on lay delegation, p. 264; on education, p. 268; Missionary Society, p. 270; American Colonization Society, p. 273; on slavery, p. 274; on the episcopacy, p. 276; election and consecration of Joshua Soule and Elijah Hedding to the episcopal office, p. 277; Canada affairs, p. 278; report of the committee on the itinerancy, p. 279; address to the Wesleyan Methodist conference, p. 280.

CHAPTER VIII.

Wyandot mission visited by Bishops M'Kendree and Soule, p. 285; Methodism in Newburyport, Gloucester, and Piscataquis, p. 286; general work, p. 287; Cazenovia Seminary, p. 288; locations and deaths of preachers, p. 288; character of Peyton Anderson, p. 289; numbers, p. 291; Indian missions—Peter Jones and others brought to God, p. 292; Methodism in New-Orleans, p. 296; Mobile and Pensacola, p. 298; in Tallahassee and Early, p. 299; in the Highlands and Hampshire, p. 300, in Chillicothe, p. 301; in Genesee, Bridgetown, Newark, and Coeymans, p. 302; in Albany, Champlain, and New-Haven districts, p. 303; church building, p. 303; revivals in Susquehannah and Black River districts, and in Baltimore, p. 304; Mariners' Church, New-York, p. 305; general work prosperous, p. 307; death and character of William Beauchamp, p. 308; death and character of William Ross, p. 314; numbers, p. 318; aboriginal missions prosper, p. 318; Methodism in Florida, Alabama, and Upper Canada, p. 319; revivals in Virginia and Maryland, p. 320; Wilbraham Academy and Madison College, p. 321; Christian Advocate begun, Sept. 9, 1826, p. 322; death and character of John Summerfield, p. 324; of Daniel Asbury, p. 329; of Daniel Hitt, p. 330; of Joseph Toy, p. 331; of John P. Finley, p. 332; numbers, p. 337; origin of the Sunday School Union of the Methodist Episcopal Church, p. 337; address, p. 338; its character and success, p. 344; Cherokee mission, p. 347; Mississauga, p. 349; character and death of Between-the-logs, p. 350; Richmond mission, p. 355; Methodism in New-York city, p. 355; in New-Haven, p. 356; Maine Wesleyan Seminary, p. 358; locations and deaths, p. 359; character and death of Philip Bruce, p. 360; of Freeborn Garretson, p. 364; of James Smith, p. 371; of Seth Crowell, p. 374; numbers, p. 378.

CHAPTER IX.

General Conference of 1828. Names and number of bishops and delegates, p. 378; address of the bishops, p. 382; appeal of Joshua Randell, vindication of Bishop Hedding, Canada affairs, p. 388; resolutions of conference in reference to them, p. 389; important principle explained, p. 390; no precedent for a similar proceeding in the United States, p. 392; how an annual conference may be disowned, p. 393; precedents for ordaining a bishop for Canada, p. 395; historical sketch of the "Reformers," p. 396; Dr. Bond's Appeal, p. 402; Defence of our Fathers, p. 406; trials in Baltimore, p. 407; similar proceedings in other places, p. 411; mistake corrected, p. 412; the "Reformers" organize and memorialize the General Conference, p. 413; report of the conference on said memorial, p. 413; our people unfavorable to "reform," p. 431; effects of the secession—increase of membership, p. 432; proceedings of "Reformers," p. 434; "The Methodist Protestant Church" formed—its character, p. 435; agitations continue, p. 436; finally cease, p. 437; review of the whole affair, p. 437; cause of missions, education, and colonization; election of book agents and editors, and provision for the appointment of trustees, p. 440; address to the Wesleyan Methodist conference, p. 441; close of the volume, p. 444.