CAUSE.—JOHN A. WATSON, Plaintiff.

WILLIAM R. HENEY, THOMAS J. PAYNE, and LORENZO A. BARNABY. Defendants.

1. William R. Heney and Lorenzo A. Barnaby, two of the above named defendants, by Otto S. Weeks their Attorney, for a plea to the plaintiff's writ and declaration say, that the alleged bond is not their bond, nor is the alleged bond the bond of either the said William R. Heney or of the said Lorenzo A. Barnaby.

2. And for a second plea the said defendants William R. Heney and Lorenzo A. Barnaby say, that the said Sheriff did not duly assign the said bond to the plaintiff according to the form of the said statute as alleged. 90

3. And for a third plea the said defendants William R. Heney and Lorenzo A. Barnaby say, that after the recovery of the judgment referred to in plaintiff's writ and declaration, and before this suit no writ or declaration was sent out of the said court here, against the said William R. Heney upon the said judgment, and returned into the said court.

4. And for a fourth plea the said defendants William R. Heney and Lorenzo A. Barnaby say, that this action was brought before the time for revering the said defendant Wm. R. Heney, against whom the judgment was obtained, according to the course and practice of the court in which the said judgment was obtained, had expired or elapsed.

5. And for a fifth plea the said defendants William R. Heney and Lorenzo A. Barnaby say, that before this action was brought, the said defendant William R. Heney, paid and satisfied the said judgment. 100

6. And for a sixth plea upon equitable grounds, the said defendants William R. Heney and Lorenzo A. Barnaby say, that the said plaintiff on the twenty-sixth day of June, A. D., 1880,
