there by road to try and buy some sugar. There is a Dutch ship just arrived from Batavia with a full cargo."

"Then tell him to call and see me. I want some letters posted for me."

"Yes, ma'am ;" and again the soldier saluted, and then strode off to his quarters.

"Another letter for Mr. Maurice Wray, I'll be bound," said Sergeant Rush to himself. "I'd give a month's pay to see her caught."
