

Knowledge — continued.

- difference between knowledge of necessary truths and conscious, 97.
- expert, 382.
- nature of conscious, 95.
- need of a criterion of, 5.
- of laws of nature, 11.
- of our bodies, 73.
- possession of a certain kind of, 381.
- simple, 360.
- LADD, Professor, quoted, 23, 237.
- Language, purposes of, 291.
- Law of adaptation, 137.
- Law of association of ideas, fundamental, 205.
- Law of habit, 183.
- in nervous system, 205.
- is a material law, 193.
- Law of parsimony, 342.
- Law, Weber's, 179.
- Laws of mind, 78.
- Laws of nature, knowledge of, 11.
- Leibniz, quoted, 235.
- Lindner, quoted, 111, 235.
- Localization of mental functions, meaning of, 54.
- Locke, quoted, 146.
- Lombard, Dr., quoted, 19.
- MANNING, Archbishop, quoted, 146.
- Martin, Professor, quoted, 29, 42, 59.
- Material wholes and thought wholes, 358.
- Matter, gray and white, of the brain, 32.
- Mechanical memory, 4, 246, 249.
- nature of reflex actions, 43.
- Mechanism of reflex action illustrated, 45.
- of voluntary action illustrated, 46.
- Medulla oblongata, 37, 50, 51.
- Memory, 4, 234, 368.
- and attention, 104.
- and health, 242.
- assimilation and discrimination in, 347.

Memory — continued.

- different kinds of, 247.
- elements of, 234.
- images, 239.
- impairment of, due to injury of the brain, 22.
- mechanical, 4, 246, 249.
- often excellent in the uneducated, 246.
- physical basis of, 236, 242.
- powers involved in, 235.
- remarkable, of Chinamen, 4.
- universal cultivation of the, 248.
- Memory culture, 242, 248.
- by interest, 242, 245.
- by logic, 243, 251.
- by visualizing, 243.
- Mental facts, 173.
- and physical facts, 72.
- definition of, 69.
- in which Psychology is interested, 77.
- nature of, 74.
- unconscious, 69, 75.
- Mental life of very young children, 113.
- Method, difficulties of the inferential, 82.
- difficulties of the introspective, 83.
- the inferential, 79.
- the inferential, and the study of history, 80.
- the inferential, and the study of our own minds, 81.
- the introspective, 79, 86.
- the objective, 294, 296, 297, 303.
- what we can learn by means of the introspective, 86.
- Methods, good and bad, 376.
- the introspective and inferential, serve to study mental facts, 86.
- to be used in dealing with the mind, 11.
- used in dealing with objects in the material world, 10.
- Meynert's postulate, 62.
- Mill, J. S., quoted, 191.
- Milton, quoted, 225.