

ZEUS IN RECORD TIME WINS KING EDWARD CUP

St. Bass Again Makes Good in
Hendrie Handicap—Carillon
Lands at Over 100 to 1.

WOODBINE PARK, May 27.—(Star Correspondence).—The governor-general arrived in state shortly after 2 o'clock, and was royally cheered. The Q.O.R. Band played patriotic airs. Soon they were off in the first race, which was won by Geo. McSweeney's Carillon, that paid $1250 for $10, or at the odds of better than $112 to $1.

Carillon's First Race.
Lady Sybil went out in front as soon as they started, and led the race until within 100 yards of the wire. High Flow was first in attendance to the stretch, followed by Planter, Service, Jim L. Vreeland, Carillon, High Flow, Voltaire and Iron Queen last. Carillon shot to the front on the outside. Vreeland second and Lady Sybil third, on the inside. Carillon was the best of the race and was well up to the mark as the race was won by Geo. McSweeney's Carillon, that paid $1250 for $10, or at the odds of better than $112 to $1.

Seymour Boutler Loses Rider.
They acted badly at the post in the seven furlongs race. Martin Doyle crowding down the bank. Finally he was off in front, Seymour Boutler was off in front, but he kept on, and so took the lead with no chance of the crowd, but the judges would not notice him. Martin kept in front all round. Sight was second to the stretch, Sal Voltaire passing him at the machine shed and making it a three-quarter length finish. Edward was almost left at the post and for pulled up. Seymour Boutler kept on for four and one-half extra miles, until he was tired out and a stable hand took him to the hospital.

Puggins by a Length.
Puggins was rated nicely and won the third in a field of seven, going away by a length. Little Pal second, and Senex third. Gold Plate was right up fourth, the rest of the race ran away behind. Little Pal made the race well up home, Senex and Surfeit being in turn second at the finish. Puggins came well up to the mark, Senex, tiring at end, was followed by Gold Plate, Tropaeum and Sheriff. Not a straggler out.

New Record for Zeus.
It is now up to the race for the King Edward Hotel Gold Cup. R. T. Wilson, who had scratched Naheon and Olan, had the result that Olan and Naheon were added. Next Fitzherbert and King James were scratched, also Olan and Naheon. In the feature of closing day. And at only Zeus and Gold Plate to go to the line, and only two horses. Yes, they cheered at the finish, because Zeus knocked four-fifths of the mile and Zeus' record, so long held by Inferno, a quarter length, was broken. Zeus' record was broken by Inferno, a quarter length, was broken. Zeus' record was broken by Inferno, a quarter length, was broken. Zeus' record was broken by Inferno, a quarter length, was broken.

All Down But Steve Lane.
They all went down in the steeplechase except Steve Lane. He was third when Gold and Jiu Jitsu for a second round. The Club House was on the last round. The Welkin was first to fall, but Steve Lane was first to fall. Steve Lane was first to fall, but Steve Lane was first to fall. Steve Lane was first to fall, but Steve Lane was first to fall.

St. Bass a Great Horse.
St. Bass proved himself a greater horse than ever in the Hendrie Handicap. Off none too well, Dugan had to do his best, and the Canadian champion made the race easy. Old Moonraker was first to run with Capr Sauce and Jane Shore behind. Entering the back stretch, Capr Sauce led by a head, Moonraker's length in front of St. Bass. Jane Shore last. The crowd set up a cheer as Dugan let out a bit, and St. Bass moved up rounding the bend. The Oakville cut out the corner and started up the stretch two lengths in front of Capr Sauce. The next thing Dugan was squinting back, looking over his shoulder and sitting back. Thus he finished easy winner by four lengths. Capr Sauce was second, a length in front of Jane Shore, and Moonraker third.

Idelweiss in the Last.
The last race, the consolation handicap, has five starters, the play being chiefly on Lawton Wiggin, Sandrian and Idelweiss. Capr Sauce, who had been scratched, made it four winners in as many days.
