Lord Vernon and Mr. M. F. York, who arrived from England on the Tunisian, are the guests of their Royal Highnesses the Governor-General and Duchess of Connaught, having joined the royal party in the Lady Grey at Quebec.

At half-past three yesterday afternoon St. Mark's Church, Parkdale, was the scene of a pretty wedding, when the marriage was solemnized of Naomi Frances, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Goullock of Jameson-avenue, Parkdale, to Mr. Charles Preston Douglas of New York, formerly of Sussex, England, son of Mr. Edwin Douglas of Sussex, England. The church was prettily decorated with white roses, carnations and palms, and the ceremony was performed by the Rev. Leslie Armstrong, Mr. Perrin presiding at the organ. The coarse linens make ideal garments for vacation wear. The white is the prettiest, and some of the best designs are severely plain.

This one shows no buttons or trimming except the scalloped edges, faced with buttonhole stitching. The waist closes surplice fashion, the lower edge overlapping side being fastened under the white leather belt. The skirt is separate.

DOROTHY VERNON OF HADDON HALL

Presentation at Royal Alexandra Next Week — She's Opens Monday and Saturday Matinee.

Dorothy Vernon was one of the most-talked-of young women of her time, and that time was Queen Elizabeth's reign in England, the days of political intrigues and jealousies, when Mary Stuart was anxious to regain the throne of Scotland, and whose many friends suffered thru their loyalty to her. Dorothy was the daughter of Sir George Vernon, lord of that famous manor known as Haddon Hall. His greatest political rival and enemy was the Earl of Rutland. Dorothy, at an early age, as was customary, had been betrothed to her cousin, Sir Malcolm Vernon, whom she had never seen. When she learned of this, having a mind of her own, she defied her father and immediately proceeded to fall in love with Sir John Manners, Lord Rutland's son and heir. Of course that naturally created much trouble in the household, especially as the Rutlands were supporters of Mary Stuart, and the Vernons were numbered in the ranks of those loyal to Queen Elizabeth. It is this young woman that Charles Major took for his heroine in his popular novel, "Dorothy Vernon of Haddon Hall," a dramatization of which will be presented at the Alexandra Theatre next week, by Miss Percy Vernon and her company, when Miss Haswell will be seen in the role of Dorothy, the vivacious, blue-blooded, high-strung English girl. A large corps of scenic artists, stage carpenters and others are busy preparing the production, which will be the most pretentious Miss Haswell has yet offered her patrons. The costumes are necessarily rich and expensive, in order to carry out the atmosphere of the era in which the story of the play takes place.

She's Opens Monday Next.

Commencing next week, She's Theatre will reopen for the coming season, and the big bill will include a number of comedy and novelty features never seen here before. Heading the bill is the charming musical comedy star, Olive Briscoe, who is making her first vaudeville appearance here. The special attractions for next week are David Schuler and Louise Dickinson, the Boy Padawski and the juvenile Mary Lida McMillan, in "The Little Mr. Allen," and the Exposition Four (Alexander Bros and Brady). Included in next week's bill are Kennedy and Melrose, the Michael Richardson Troupe, Ben Linn, Apple's Zoological Circus and the kinetograph. Seats on sale now.

Hardy's Thrilling Act.

Hardy, the famous high-wire walker, opened an engagement at the Starboro Beach yesterday afternoon, and showed that in the interval since he has appeared in his home town he has lost none of his marvellous balance and his repertoire of tricks. Hardy is probably the most sensational high-wire performer before the public to-day, and those who delight in performances of the sort he provides may be gratified to know that a Toronto boy is conceded by the American and European experts to be the greatest of them all. The cycle act of Bobby Walther and his Princeton girls at the Beach is another very clever one, and introduces some tricks that have not been seen in Toronto before. The five Flying Dardanels have perfected a fine casting act that is one of the chief attractions at the band of the Queen's Own Rifles.

Seasonable Recipes

Potatoes in Cases.
Roast large potatoes, cut off a piece from the top of each, lay it aside. Empty the insides carefully by the help of a small spoon, not tearing the skins. To this potato, when mashed, add butter, grated cheese, pepper and salt as suits your taste. Bind the mixture with a beaten egg; heat a saucepan, stirring to prevent scorching. Refill the cases, fit on the top of each, set in a hot oven three minutes before sending to table in a warm napkin.

Puerto Rico Salad.
Take the inside leaves of the romaine salad and line salad bowl with them several layers deep, simulating pineapple splices.

Chinese Fish Balls.
Boil two pounds of fresh fish in salted water for 20 minutes, then carefully remove. Reject all the skins and bones. Put one pint of stock in a small saucepan, rub together two tablespoons of butter and four rounding tablespoons of flour; add this to the stock and stir constantly until you have a smooth paste. Add the yolks of two eggs, cook a minute, take from the fire, add two tablespoons of finely chopped parsley, one tablespoon of salt, a dash of red pepper, one tablespoon of onion juice and just a grating of nutmeg. Mix well and then stir in carefully the fish. Do not stir until the fish is broken up. Turn the mixture out to cool. When cold form into balls, dip in egg, then in bread crumbs and fry in smoking hot fat. Have ready some tomato sauce, pour it in the dish. Stand the balls in it and serve.
