The Corporation of Foront Match. A protest having been entered against the Dominion Rifle Association on the grounds of irregularity in the entry, the team saved further trouble by withdrawing the entry. In doing so the team addressed the following open letter to the Match Committee of the O.R.A.:

Hotelkeepers and liquor dealers would do well to get 'n a good supply of the Eaton Bros. Brewing Company of Owen Sound, Limited, ale and porter, as everything goes to show that these are now the leading drinks on the market, and the run on them during Exhibition will be astonishing. Order at once and avoid the rush. Gentlemen,—A protest having been entered against the entry of the team of the Dominion Rifle Association, which has made the highest score in the corporation match, the members of that team prefer to withdraw their entry rather than to accept the prize, accompanied by any sentiment on the part of their fellow-competitors that the entry was in any way an undesirable one.
