BUSINESS HANDICAPPED

London Breakfast Food Company Has Suffered by Order-in-Council.

R. K. McIntosh, mana ger of the Battle Creek Toasted Corn Fla ke Company, has received word from Ottawa that there will be a meeting of those inter- regular 11st. The object of the arested in the prospective issue of licenses to cereal firms at the capital early next week. Mr. McIntosh will attend the meeting. It is expected that definite word regarding the fate of the local cereal concern will be secured from the license committee appointed by the food controller.

Togay all the reserved and adjourned cases will be disposed of, and when the boards start to work again on Monday it will be with a clear sheet. The seven city tribunals have had ilcense committee appointed by the food controller.

According to the provisions of the order-in-codneil prohibiting the sale of cereals and breakfast foods in less than 20-pound packages, the cereal firms which are yet manufacturing breakfast foods and distributing them in small packages will have to close down on December 1 unless the license is secured before that time. According to Mr. Mc. Intosh, the Battle Creek Toasted Corn Flakes Company has suffered serious interruptions in its business owing to the order-in-council. Grocers who formerly were consistent customers now refuse to stock Corn Flakes owing to the danger of being suddenly left with a stock on hand which would involve a loss.

Suffer From Order.

"We have suffered serious interruptions in its business owing to the effects of the order-in-council," Mr. McIntosh said. "Our customers have been leaving us, not relishing the risk of experiencing a surplus of small packages with no outlet of sale, Weapplied for a license to continue business as formerly about one month ago, and were then promised speedy consideration."

Andrupe's answers seemed to rile Mr. McKillop, whose feelings were ruffled a trifle more at Mr. Meredith's frequent interruntions. Magistrate Graydon was kept busy trying to get the drift of things and expressed the opinion that Andrupe knew a whole lot more English than he was uncovering. However, he would have to dismiss the case as it had not been proven that Andrupe had liquor in his possession.

One of the most pathetic incidents of the campaign occurred when a canvasser went to the house of Mr. and Mrs. Geary, living in the vicinity of Victoria Hospital. As the canvasser explained the application form and was in the act of closing the affair a telegram announcing the death of their son was brought to the door. Although overwhelmed with grief, the aged couple determined to buy more bonds for their two little grandchildren, 3 and 5 years old, to help avenge their heavy loss.

Engineers' Figures Show Reduction of 45 Cents Per Yard for Asphalt.

City Engineer Brazier is preparing his report of the work done during the year by his department. During the summer 38,000 square yards of ashphalt pavement were put down at a cost of $76,000, an average of $2 per square yard. The department saved $16,000 on this work, as compared with the prices under contract, or almost 45 cents a square yard.

About one mile and a quarter of sanitary sewers have been laid at a cost of $19,240. There are 3,200 feet under construction, which will cost $23,000.

The other figures will be ready shortly. The amount of work done was considerable, and reflects-credit on Mr. Brazier and his staff.

SOLDIERS CAN BUY
VICTORY BONDS ON A MONTHLY BASIS

In order to facilitate the purchase of Victory Loan bonds by the soldiers stationed in this city and district, arrangements have been made by the district headquarters satiff for the men to pay for them by monthly installments, which will be deducted by the paymaster each month.

Those who wish to purchase a $55 bond, may do so by notifying their paymaster, and he will then deduct $5 each month until the bond is paid for in full. Those who wish to purchase a $100 bond, may do use by notifying their paymaster, and he will then deduct $5 each month until the bond is paid for in full. Those who wish to purchase a $100 bond, may do use the same to pay master, and he will then deduct $5 each month.

Respental and district paymaster has been received and thave received instructions to co-operate in the plan. Camp orders today, referring to the above arrangements, state that checks for the first payment must reach Ottawa on or before December 15 and for the second payment on or before January 2. It will, therefore, be necessary that these checks be received by the district paymaster at least two clear days before the dates given.
