

pamphlets and other ephemeral literature, bearing upon matters that are rapidly becoming historic. The arrangement and cataloguing of this large amount of matter will involve much extra work, but your Committee feels confident that the results will fully justify the time and labour expended.

The usual conspectus of Reading, Attendance and Additions is appended.

The whole respectfully submitted, on behalf of your Committee.

(Signed),

C. H. GOULD,

University Librarian.

CONSPPECTUS OF READING AND ATTENDANCE FROM JANUARY 20, 1895,
TO JANUARY 14, 1896.

QUARTER ENDING.	READERS.	VISITORS.	TOTAL.	BOOKS READ.
April 23, 1895.....	7,189	.. 220	.. 7,409	.. 8,237 vols.
June 20, "	740	.. 101	.. 841	.. 915 "
Oct. 23, "	2,714	.. 681	.. 3,395	.. 3,624 "
Jan. 14, 1896.....	5,898	.. 116	.. 6,014	.. 6,130 "
	16,541	1,118	17,659	18,906 "

Note.—These figures are exclusive of the work done in departmental libraries; and the number of visitors was many times in excess of those who signed the register.