Granby, P. Q. Feb. 5, 1868.

To the Grand Division of S. of T. of C. E.
Brethren :—

With hearts grateful to our Heavenly Father, for the prosperity of our Order in the past, and the pleasing prospects for the future, we are again assembled to deliberate upon the means which will best promote the interest of our noble Order and save men from the evils of intemperance, and it becomes my duty as your chief officer, to lay before you such matters as appear to me most likely to secure the objects for which we have assembled.

For the financial and numerical condition of our Order I refer you to the report of the Grand Scribe.

As far as I have reports from my deputies, the working condition of the Order has not materially improved since my last report, nor can we reasonably entertain much hope for improvement, until we apply the means, which all agree must be applied viz. : secure an efficient and permanent lecturer in the field, and I repeat the suggestion that appears in my last report, that you
