

CHALONER & HUNT,

Apothecaries and Druggists,

ST. JOHN AND FREDERICTON,

Respectfully inform the Public that they keep constantly on hand a choice assortment of

DRUGS, MEDICINES,

PERFUMERY, FANCY ARTICLES,

Brushes of all descriptions,

CONFECTIONARY,

PATENT MEDICINES,

(NEW AND OLD.)

Dye Stuffs, Paints, Oils, Varnishes, &c., &c.

☞ The adulteration of Medicines is a practice which has too often brought censure upon the Physician, and death to the Patient; it is indeed Manslaughter of the very first degree, and cannot be too hardly dealt with, or too strongly discountenanced.

We beg to assure the public, that we plead "NOT GUILTY" in this matter; our Medicines being obtained from the most reliable sources, and sold just as pure as when we receive them; and although by adhering to this principle, we shall make less profit, yet the increasing popularity of our Establishment is proof-positive that our efforts are appreciated, and gives encouragement to proceed upon the same principle.

We prepare and keep constantly on hand the following

GOOD AND SERVICEABLE MEDICINES,

not that our only object is to increase the Sales, but for the sake of afflicted humanity, that those suffering may obtain relief, viz.—
