A wedding which has been anticipated with interest by many friends in Saint John will take place in Knox Presbyterian church this afternoon at 3.30 o'clock when Miss Helen Aileen Morrison, elder daughter of the late Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Morrison, and granddaughter of Mrs. James L. Dunn, Germain street will become the bride of Donald Edgerton Phin, only son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Phin, of Hamilton, Ontario. Rev. W. L. White chiffon bows mark the pews which are reserved for the friends of the contracting parties.

The full choir of the church, under the direction of the organist, Miss Katherine Wilson, will render nuptial music.

THE BRIDE'S DRESS

The bride will enter the church with her uncle, H. R. Dunn, who will give her in marriage. Her gown, beautiful in its simplicity, is of white chiffon over ivory satin, the skirt made in full effect, and finished with a girdle of crushed white velvet. Her hat is of shirred white georgette and she will carry a magnificent bouquet of pale pink roses.

Miss Josephine Morrison will be her sister's only attendant, and will wear orchid georgette over satin, with draped skirt, caught in the front with purple sweet peas. Her hat is of orchid georgette, with simple knot of purple sweet peas on the brim, and she will carry yellow roses and purple orchids. William Brown Hendrie, of Hamilton, Ontario, is the groomsman, and John Moore and Alastair Morrison, brother of the bride will be the ushers. During the signing of the register the choir will sing "O, Promise Me."

The bride and bridegroom will leave on the evening train for Montreal, New York and Atlantic City. The bride will travel in a tailored coat of grey velour, and small gray velour hat, and will wear a grey and blue Liberty scarf and corsage bouquet of violets.

Good Saturday Business In Market

The country market was doing a good business today. Supplies were plentiful and demand good. There was not much difference in this week's prices from those of last Saturday. Meats were slightly lower and some vegetables higher. The retail prices for beef were 14 to 30 cents, pork, 25-32, lamb 20-40, veal 12-30, ham 45-50, bacon, 45-58, sausage 25-30, tongue 30 and rabbits 45 cents a pair.

Supplies of poultry were good but not much in excess of the demand. Turkey brought 50 cents, chicken 50, and fowl 35-40. Eggs were selling at 50 cents for extras, 45 for firsts and storage went at 40 cents. Dairy butter fetched 45 cents per pound while the creamery product brought 50-55. In the vegetable stalls, potatoes were selling at 4-5 cents per pound, turnips 2, beets and carrots 4, squash 5-6, cabbage 6, sweet potatoes 10, onions 7-8, apples 4-5, mushrooms 75, with cauliflower 50-60 cents each, celery 25-35, lettuce 10, iceberg lettuce 20-25, radishes 10, peppers 10, rhubarb 20, spinach 30, and green onions 15 cents per bunch.

"HEAVEN'S CURTAINS"

People living in the northern parts of the city and outside the glare of city lights were treated to a marvellously beautiful display of the aurora borealis last night. The heavenly curtains extended for miles across the sky in varying tints and hues and actually illuminated the outskirts of town. A party of skiiers tramping across snowy stretches in the Sandy Point direction report having stood spellbound for a while watching the northern lights, the whole scene and circumstance appealing to them as suggestive of the far northland about which so much is written and pictured nowadays.

GOOD THINGS COMING TO THEATRES OF SAINT JOHN

May Edwards' Players Present 'Hell's Garden'

The Mae Edwards Players who are enjoying tremendous success at the Opera House with their splendid playe, Jazz Orchestra and peppy vaudeville, are presenting a play of the primitive. Monday "Hell's Garden" a play that attempts to portray the struggle for development in a country which steadily defies the encroaching civilization. It is the tragedy of an ever-shining sun which breeds inevitable dampror, a damprot which permeates not only the vegetation and inanimate objects but the hearts and minds of the white men who try to conquer it.

The author of 'Hell's Garden" has skillfully chosen, expertly distributed detail—curious and interesting in itself. He calls into existence and illusion, the station, the bungalow, the river steamer, the native outskirt. Better still, the author has so devised the play that though it be never visible, yet is ever present. the miasma haunting the day, the poison infecting the night; the rot of West Africa upon white men, body, mind and spirit. Never before and never since has such a truly wonderful play been written as "Hell's Garden" which this popular company will present at the Opera House for the first three days of next week.

The Food We Eat Most

The Food we buy the most of is Bread.

It is therefore such a big item we need to know which is which, so we'll get the most value out of our money and the most health out of every slice.

The Bread that earns the title of most value to the loaf is the Bread with the richest ingredients. Butter-Nut wins without a contradiction.

It follows as natural that Butter-Nut is likewise the Bread with more health to the slice.
