SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION

The St. John County Sunday School Convention opened last evening with a banquet in the Y. W. C. A. Cafeteria and a public meeting in Central Baptist church. Rev. Waldo C. Machum, maritime secretary of Baptist Sunday Schools, set forth the standard of excellence for Sunday schools. The meeting opened with a reading by Rev. F. H. Bone, pastor of the Central Baptist church and Canon R. A. Armstrong, spoke on the importance of Sunday schools. W. C. Cross, and Rev. Mr. Milligan were heard, the latter speaking on how comparatively little religious instruction the Protestant child received. Rev. Mr. Milligan expressed pleasure at addressing a gathering in his birthplace. Rev. A. S. Bishop announced the teacher training school which is to be held in the Church of England Institute.

ARRESTED ON MURDER CHARGE

William P. Brines, a University of Pennsylvania freshman, is wanted on a warrant for the murder of Elmer C. Bruesels, a Dartmouth senior, according to the district attorney in Philadelphia. Brines is said to be the owner of a yellow motor car, stained with blood and containing an automatic revolver. With two empty chambers which was found abandoned yesterday about a mile from where Bruesels' body was discovered, propped against a lamp post with a bullet hole in his head.
