PROFITS AND THE TURNOVER.

(Toronto Star.)
In textile manufactures profits of 72 and 810 per cent have been shown, in the flour milling business the Ogilvie Company made 72 per cent. In huge profits the facts to be as stated the argument will have little effect upon the public mind. In effect, the plea is:
"True we made enormous profits but the people are not hurt, because so many contributed that the contribution of each was very small. The arrangements in the
