ST. PETER'S BANQUET WAS GREAT SUCCESS

Clever Speeches and Good Programme Follow Discussion of Tempting Menu

The members of the St. Peter's Young Men's Association, last evening in the large hall in Elm street conducted their third annual banquet and it proved a most successful and enjoyable. Many attended, the five lengthy tables being surrounded by a strong contingent of those on the membership roll. The menu provided was done very hearty justice to and afforded much pleasure, and the tables heavily laden with choice variety of foodstuffs and delicacies, and decorated with pink and white carnations added materially to the festive scene. The catering was done by Geo. Wammanaker.

After the good things had been disposed of an entertaining and interesting programme was given, prepared by the literary committee under the direction of W. J. Shea. It included musical selections by the association orchestra, readings, recitations, and vocal and instrumental solos, as well as a nicely arranged list of toasts which brought forth pleasing, forceful and inspiring addresses from those whose names were coupled therewith. The responses were made by past presidents of the society.

The chair was occupied by the president, Jas. B. Dever, who gave an address of welcome, in which he spoke of the successful season just closed by the association, and outlined new features for the coming month, before extending a cordial greeting to all brother members on behalf of the executive.

He was followed by the rector of the parish, Rev. A. J. Duke, C.S.S.R., who favored the banquet with a speech of rare excellence, reflecting on the advantages of being members of a young men's association, the salutary benefits accruing, and the necessity of taking active interest in all matters pertaining to its promotion, for in so doing the young men were but advancing their own moral, mental, and physical welfare.

Rev. J. H. Borgmann, C.S.S.R., was heard in a fine address, in which he spoke of the satisfactory manner in which the programme for the last season had been conducted, and spoke of the many innovations to be established in the near future, amongst others the organization of a boating club for outdoor recreation.

The toast to "The King" was received with much honor, and was followed by the toast to "Our Association," proposed by Frank Walsh, and capably responded to by Alfred L. Dever, after which an orchestral selection was rendered. The toast to "Canada, Our Country," proposed by the chairman, brought forth a glowing and appreciative tribute from F. J. Casey, and then a trombone solo by Harry McManus was loudly enjoyed. He was followed by a vocal solo by the association, and a waltz dance with cleverness. E. R. Hanson presided over the evening, to which J. J. Gallagher made a fitting and optimistic reply.

The next feature was the presentation of a comic playlet entitled "The New Broom, or a Novel Way of Raising the Dust," which was produced by the Dramatic Strollers, of Quaco. There were six members in the cast—J. V. Shea, T. C. Olive, B. McManus, J. J. Casey, Geo. Connell and F. Doherty. They were warmly applauded for their successful performance, which added greatly to the entertainment of the evening.

James McDowen next proposed the toast to "Our Athletic Interests," which was received with much honor, and was followed by a reading, after which the toast to "The Ladies" was proposed by the chairman. They were then changed by Wm. J. McMahon in a speech in which he combined humor and pathos with pleasing effect, and delivered himself of some refreshing matrimonial advice to his audience. The closing selection was then given by the orchestra under the capable leadership of Edmund Lunney, with Joseph Mulvey presiding at the piano.

A STEP AT A TIME
Have you ever noticed how unreasonably the man at the top of the ladder envies the man at the bottom? Not until success has been actually attained does the man appear at the top, and that is in the case of the man at the bottom.

This, at any rate, is the experience of the Midland Vinegar Company, of England, the manufacturers of H. P. Sauce. They are now at the top of the ladder—H. P. is an assured success—everybody who tastes it, like it, and recommends his friends to make a trial of it.

Amid the general buzz of success no one has leisure to imagine what a long time was given over by the Midland Vinegar Company to careful experimenting with different combinations of rich Oriental fruits and spices, before a perfectly delicious, rich, thick, fruity sauce like H. P. was arrived at and christened.

It has been a success from the first—but that is not the point. The first time it was tried it was a success. It has been a success from the first—but that is not the point. The first time it was tried it was a success. It has been a success from the first—but that is not the point. The first time it was tried it was a success.

Puts New Life In Hair and Scalp
(From the Fashion Review)
"The old disagreeable method of washing the scalp is giving way to shampooing, which is easier and quicker, equally as cleansing and does not leave the scalp dry and hard or make the hair brittle or stringy. The dry shampoo promotes a healthy, vigorous condition and gives the hair a bright, glossy and fluffy appearance."

An excellent dry shampoo can be made by mixing 4 ounces of orris root and 4 ounces of starch. Once a week sprinkle a little of this mixture on the head, then brush out carefully and it will remove dust and excess oil. If the hair is dry, a few treatments will make it soft and healthy.

"This is worth trying if you want fluffy, luxuriant hair, or care to avoid the danger of catching cold if one is exposed to when taking an ordinary wet shampoo. Then, too, there is said to be a genuine hair grower."

The bodies of twenty seven of the Titanic victims have been forwarded from Halifax to their relatives. For of the unidentified dead will be buried in Halifax on Friday afternoon. In the morning of that day a memorial service will be held in Brunswick street church by the Evangelical Alliance, the band of the Royal Canadian Regiment assisting with music. Sardine Fishing
St. Andrew's Beacon—Some of the sardine weirs around here have been selling their fish lately at 85 and 86 a hhd. Capt. Warnock, of the steamer Connors Bros., reports fishing along the coast to be very quiet. At Black's harbor, the Connors Bros. are packing a few sardines.

The sardine weirs fishermen find a new clause in the license this year which they do not like. They say that under that clause they are bound hand and foot to the Canadian fish packer and that the industry and dealing generously with the fishermen in past years, gets very little. They sympathize heartily with the idea of developing a Canadian fish industry, but the Canadian fishermen should be considered as well as the Canadian packer. They should not be denied the right of selling their fish where and to whom they please. Both liberal and conservative fishermen are up in arms against this interference with their personal liberties.
