

Conditions of the competition for prizes.

To compete for the ORDINARY PRIZES awarded at the end of the academic year, every pupil must:

1. Have followed regularly the academic course during at least half the scholastic year,

2. Have passed the two semi-annual examinations, the first of which takes place in January and the second at the end of the year.

3. Have kept, at least, one-half of the notes granted for conduct and application,

4. Have kept, at least, three-fourths of the notes granted, and for an honorable mention or an accessit, one-half:

a. For his daily work, note of which is kept by the professors,

b. For the monthly compositions, the result of which is regularly registered by the Director,

c. Finally, for the semi-annual examinations.

