REV. C. T. PHILLIPS REMEMBERED.

The Free Baptist parsonage on Waterloo street was invaded last evening by as many of the members of the church congregation as could comfortably get themselves within the doors, and Rev. C. T. Phillips was reminded that he had reached another milestone on the way of life. On the actual anniversary of his birth he was in Woodstock, but the people seized the opportunity of his return and last evening presented him with an address and a purse of fifty dollars. The presentation was made by William Peters. The visitors took refreshments with them, and a very pleasant evening was spent by all. Mr. Phillips, to whom and his family the visit was a surprise, feelingly thanked the people for the generous remembrance and the evidence of their regard for him as their pastor.

THE LATE GEORGE BIDDINGTON.

The funeral of the late George Biddington will take place from his late residence, 112 Waterloo street, at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon to St. Mary's church. The members of Carleton Union Lodge, F. & A. M., will attend and the Masonic service will be conducted at the house and at the grave in Fernhill. Mr. Biddington is survived by his wife, an English lady, two sons, John J., of this city, and George of the I. C. R. employ at Shediac, and four daughters, Mrs. Edward Wallace and Mrs. Thos. Wallace, and two unmarried. The late Mr. Biddington was a member of St. George's Society.

WANTED MARRIAGE CERTIFICATE

A couple arrived in the city by this morning's train from the west, who had been turned back by the U. S. Immigration agent at Vancouver. They had passed through St. John yesterday on their way to Boston from some point in Nova Scotia, and were today returned to their homes. The difficulty at the border appeared to be that although the pair were travelling as man and wife, they were unable to produce any marriage certificate. The girl was neatly dressed and had evidently come of a good family but the man was today considerably under the influence of liquor.

ADVANCE IN STRAWBERRIES.

Strawberries advanced two or three cents a box in the local market today. It is explained that up to the present the supply came from Baltimore and other points south, but the consignments received now are from New Jersey, the season south being over. Local berries are not due for some time yet, and the continuous frosts of this spring have not improved the outlook for a successful season.

WORSE THAN EASTER WEATHER.

James Fawcett, the veteran gardener, who resides at the corner of Summer and Winter streets, says that it was easier to get flowers to bloom at Easter time than it is at present, on account of the continued cold weather. However, he does not despair of the final advent of warm weather, and, despite the inclement season, some of his favorites are in full bloom.

MORRIS-MURPHY.

One of the prettiest weddings among the many in this month of roses took place in the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception this afternoon, when B. Joseph Morris of the Jas. Robertson Company, Toronto, was united in marriage to Miss Gertrude Murphy, niece of the Misses Smith, 17 Cliff street.

The ceremony was performed at a quarter to three o'clock by the Rev. F. J. McMurray in the presence of a very large number of the friends of the parties.

The bride wore a gown of golden brown silk grenadine, with blue panne velvet trimmings, and veil and large picture hat. Fastened in her gown was a beautiful diamond and pearl clasp, the gift of the groom.

She was attended by Miss Catherine McCahey as bridesmaid and little Miss Geraldine Hogan as maid of honor. The bridesmaid's dress was of grey nun's veiling with pink silk trimmings and black picture hat, while the little maid of honor wore white silk and a black hat trimmed with daisies. The bride carried a large bouquet of white roses, while the bridesmaid's and that carried by the maid of honor were pink. The bride was given away by her brother, John C. Murphy of Boston.

Michael D. Sweeney of this city assisted the groom.

The invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. James McCarthy, Miss McCarthy, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Hogan, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ramsay, Mr. and Mrs. Josh Ward, Mrs. and Miss McCaffrey, Mrs. J. O'Neill, Mr. and Mrs. J. Keeffe, the immediate relatives of the bride, her mother Mrs. M. Brown, her brother John C. Murphy of Boston, Miss Smith of New York and the Misses Smith of Cliff street were also present. The centre of the church was reserved for the guests and friends of the parties, who were ushered to their seats by Arthur P. O'Rourke.

After the ceremony the wedding party drove to the home of the bride on Cliff street, where luncheon was served and a reception held. Mr. and Mrs. Morris afterwards took the C. P. R. express for Montreal. They will visit Toronto and Niagara, and upon their return, in about three weeks, will reside at 17 Cliff street.

Miss Murphy was the recipient of very many beautiful presents. Among them were a silver service on silver, from the James Robertson Company; cut glass fruit dish, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Foster, marble clock, M. J. Sweeney, gold and Dresden classic vase, Miss Catherine McCaffrey, cut glass fruit dish, Mr. and Mrs. J. O'Neill; silver tray, Mr. and Mrs. J. O'Neill; silver pitcher, Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Ward; spoon, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ramsay; silver ladle, Miss Geraldine Hogan; silver pie knife, Miss Mamie McLaughlin; silver biscuit jar, Mrs. Thomas Nash of Sydney; gold and Dresden fern dish, Mr. and Mrs. James McCarthy; gold statue, Miss Mary Smith, New York; mahogany table, Miss McCarthy; and many others. The groom's presents to the bridesmaid and maid of honor were pearl ornaments.

LANE-LAWRENCE.

Fred. C. Lane, son of Walter Lane of Wright street, St. John, and Miss Josephine Lawrence of Hantsport, N. S., were married at the bride's home at 8 o'clock this morning. Mr. Lane is a traveller for the Sun Oil Co., and he and his bride will live on Wright street, this city. The bride is a popular young lady, and Mr. Lane has a host of friends in the provinces, who extend congratulations.

McKAY-MILLER.

St. David's church was the scene of a very pretty wedding at seven o'clock this morning, when Dr. Hector H. McKay, of New Glasgow, N. S., led to the altar Miss Christina Young Miller, daughter of the late Alexander Miller, of Mount Pleasant. The bride was formerly a nurse in the Aberdeen Hospital, New Glasgow, and the groom one of the visiting physicians.

There were no guests present, but the centre portion of the church was reserved for the friends of the contracting parties. These were ushered to their seats by Messrs. Jack Burpee, Bruce Curpee, Harry Binning, and Cameron Bogart.

The bride, who was given away by H. A. Austin, was becomingly attired in a suit of fawn violet over turquoise blue taffeta silk, with haf to match. She was attended by her sister, Miss Annie R. Miller, who wore a gown of champagne fawn violet over fawn taffeta silk with hat. The groom was supported by G. A. Grant, of New Glasgow. The service was musical throughout, with Mrs. J. M. Barnes presiding at the organ, and as the bridal party entered the church the choir sang the "Voice that breathed o'er Eden." During the service Mrs. Barnes played the Intermezzo from the Cavalleria Rusticana.

After the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. W. W. Rainnie, the bride and groom drove to the D. A. R. wharf, where they took the steamer for Annapolis, Halifax, and Sydney, C. B. They will reside in New Glasgow.

The bride was the recipient of a large number of beautiful and costly presents. The groom's present to the bride was a handsome gold watch and chain, and to the bridesmaid, a ring.

WATSON-McAFEE.

Last evening the marriage took place of Fred. J. Watson, an employe of Miller Bros., to Miss Theresa D. McAfee, only daughter of Oliver McAfee of Indian town. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. A. Sellar, of the St. Matthew's Presbyterian parsonage on Simonds street, in the presence of a number of friends of the parties.

ALLEN-JACKSON.

At Carmarthen Street Methodist church this morning, Donald Allen, of this city, was married to Miss Emma Jackson, of Havelock. The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. A. Sellar. The bride, who was unattended, wore a fawn colored travelling suit. She received a large number of presents. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Allen left on the noon train on a wedding trip through the province. On their return they will reside at 199 Carmarthen street.

WEDDED AT OAK POINT.

The marriage of Miss Viola May Johnson, only daughter of E. J. Johnson of Oak Point, Kings Co., and Wm. Bradford Gold of Malden, Mass., was solemnized at noon on Monday in the Free Baptist Church at Oak Point by the Rev. H. A. Bonnell. The church was prettily decorated with trailing vines, ferns and potted plants. During the marriage ceremony the bridal party stood under a floral arch composed of apple blossoms and wild flowers.

The bride, who was unattended, wore a creation of pale blue peau de sole silk which fitted her slight figure to perfection; trimmings were velvet and applique lace. Her hat was of white chiffon, with white ostrich feather plume. She carried a cluster of bridal roses and maiden hair fern and wore one glove. At one o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Gold embarked on steamer Victoria for this city, where they will remain for a short time before proceeding to Malden, Mass., their future home. The bride, who is one of the most popular young ladies of Oak Point, was the recipient of many beautiful gifts.

McCOURT-KEES.

One of today's happy events took place in St. Peter's church at 7:30 o'clock this morning, when Francis McCourt was united in marriage to Miss Lillie Kees, both parties being of this city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Fr. W. E. Scully, after which the newly married couple drove to the bride's home on Sheriff street, where breakfast was served.

AT FREDERICTON.

The bans were published at St. Dunstan's church on Sunday of John Lynch of Fredericton, and Miss Sarah Rowen, of Lincoln, and of John Burns of Kingsley, and Miss Nora Sullivan, of Fredericton.

IN MINNEAPOLIS.

Miss Annie Coburn Mitchell, niece of Conductor Hagerman, of Fredericton, was married on June 4th in Minneapolis, at the home of her aunt, Mrs. W. J. Morgan, to Alex. Christie, of Tomahawk, Wisconsin. They will live in the last named town.

LOWE-CALDER.

At the residence of the bride's parents, Church street, Amherst, at 9:30 o'clock this morning, Miss Jessie Brown Calder, daughter of John Calder, dry goods merchant, was wedded to Stanley M. Lowe, whose father is terminal superintendent for the I. C. R. at Sydney, C. B. The dining room and parlor were very prettily decorated, in green and white. The bride was dressed in a travelling suit of stone blue cloth, with hat to match. Her sister, Miss Lydia Calder, played the wedding march. A large company of friends and relatives were present.

The happy couple left on a bridal tour to Niagara Falls and several Canadian and American cities. On their return they will reside on Park street, Amherst. The groom is a grand-nephew of Sir Charles Tupper. The bride has many friends in St. John. The wedding gifts were numerous and costly.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Baker, Master Stuart Baker and Miss Stuart of St. John, relatives of the bride.

DOUGLAS-STEVENS.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of one of Carleton's most talented and popular young ladies, Marion Geneva Stevens, to James Robson Douglas of Nova Scotia. The marriage took place Wednesday, June 4, in Boston. They will be at home after June 25, at Amherst, N. S. The bride has many friends in Carleton who wish her long life, happiness and prosperity.

THIS EVENING.

A Milk White Flag at York Theatre—A Splendid Performance.

The Milk White Flag was repeated in the York Theatre, and as on the former occasion, everyone went away highly pleased with the performance. Miss Reynolds is fast becoming a general favorite. Her work is neat and dainty, and the dances given are new and equal to any which have previously been seen in St. John. Miss LaHarte possesses a voice which is a credit to the whole company, and it is to be regretted that she sings only one selection during the evening. As usual, W. H. Lytell came in for a large share of applause and his work fully upholds the very high reputation he has gained in this city. The other members of the company take their parts well and there is not a slow movement in the whole performance.

The electrical effects introduced in the musical specialties between the second and third acts continue to delight the audience. In point of musical excellence the whole performance is exceptionally good. The company strong at every point, and there is a quickness and snap in the general movement that keeps the interest of the audience absorbed from start to finish. A Milk White Flag will be produced again this evening.

HON. A. G. BLAIR IN TOWN.

Hon. A. G. Blair was in the city today. His stay will be short, as he is returning to Ottawa to remain until the departure of his daughter, Mrs. Brewin, to England. But as soon as the minister can get away he is coming down to spend his vacation at the Bay Shore. Mr. Blair remarks that he has no desire to attend the coronation festivities in London. It is more to his taste to put in a quiet month, enjoying the salubrious breezes of the Bay of Fundy coast. He gets at Ottawa all that he wants of official life and ceremony. Mr. Blair's health is greatly improved.

DESTROYING THE TREES.

Cattle are allowed to roam at the dictates of their own wills on the Marsh road. The condition of many of the shade trees put out on that thoroughfare bear ample testimony to the necessity of turning the energies of these misguided cattle in some other direction. There appears to be a fine field for an enterprising pound keeper along the Marsh road.
