PLEASE PUBLISH MY TESTIMONIAL

So Other Sufferers Will Take "Fruit-a-lives" and Be Cured

Gratitude—heartfelt gratitude—prompted this letter. Madame Langlois was so thankful for the cure of her illness by restoring her to health and strength, that she gladly allowed her letter to be published.

MADAME VALERE LANGLOIS.
St. Roumald, Que., Sept. 28, 1912.—I have pleasure in stating that I have been cured of severe Dyspepsia and Chronic Constipation by using "Fruit-a-lives." I was a terrible sufferer from severe Constipation for many years, and I tried every remedy I heard of, and also was treated by physicians without any permanent benefit.

Then I tried "Fruit-a-lives," and this fruit medicine has completely cured both my constipation and my dyspepsia. I cannot praise "Fruit-a-lives" enough.

Canadians Out In Front in Capital Of Oregon State

St. John Man Writes Home to Tell of Leading Positions Being Filled by Former Canucks—Mayor to Visit Here.

(By E. B. Lockhart.)
Salem, Ore., July 31.—In this little city of 18,000, the capital of the state of Oregon, Canadians are in evidence; from the Montreal wares who recently, unable to decide whether she should make a trip to her old home, flipped a coin to settle the matter and the coin settling in the wrong way, decided to make the trip this summer, to Governor West, born in Ontario, noted throughout the United States on account of his prison policy. Tokens of the Canada land are also seen from the large elk head which is attracting considerable attention on the streets of Salem, recently brought here from Winnipeg and placed in the lobby of one of the hotels, to Mayor Steves, of Salem, born in Ontario, elected to the mayor's office, and who is making good in a progressive administration.

Mayor Steves leaves here this week for his former home in Ontario after which he will visit the lower provinces and be in St. John (N. B.), sometime in August.

Very likely, Canadians are to the right of the left of us; they vote of us and they are nothing to be ashamed of. The leadership of the state entrusted to a Canadian, and the leadership in Salem municipal affairs entrusted to one from across the border, are no cause for regret.

REID GIRL GOES UP FOR TRIAL IN FRANCHISE CASE

Circumstantial Evidence Sometimes More Convincing Than Direct, Says Magistrate

Thursday, Aug. 7.
Viola Reid was committed for trial yesterday by Magistrate Ritchie on the charge of murdering her infant son. The preliminary hearing in the case concluded the afternoon session with the examining of one new witness and recalling of Miss Cooke of the Evangeline Home, P. A. Guthrie, of Fredericton, counsel for the accused made an appeal for dismissal, on the ground that the evidence submitted was entirely circumstantial and there was nothing to incriminate. He contended that should the matter be sent up for trial, it should be dealt with by the Sunbury county authorities where it was evident the child whose body was found had died. The magistrate in committing the accused, made no reference to this request of her counsel, leaving the decision of the point in the hands of the attorney-general.

Mr. Guthrie contended that the trial should have been held in Sunbury but this matter is left with Attorney General—One New Witness for Prosecution; None for Defence.

Very little evidence was given by the new witness. This was William Lovett, and until recently he had been employed as a bell boy in the Dufferin Hotel, it was with great difficulty the police authorities were able to have him brought to the court.

Mr. Guthrie's contention was that the child was not in the Dufferin Hotel, on the morning of April 16. He recalled her name as being in the Dufferin Hotel, on the morning of April 16. He recalled her name as being in the Dufferin Hotel, on the morning of April 16.
