Manufacturers' Life and Mackenzie & Mann's Dealings

Charge That Company's Books Are Juggled With to Conceal Loans and Purchases of Improper Securities

Toronte, April 27.—At this morning's session of the dominion insurance inquiry the examination of manager Junkin of the Manufacturers' Life was continued. Mr. Junkin said the only reason for the transferring of senator Cox's stock to Strachan & McCuaig of Montreal was that he did not consider it to be in the interests of the Manufacturers' Life to have the president of two other companies, the Canada Life and Imperial Life, to also hold so large a block of the stock of the Manufacturers' He said that D. D. Mann director of the Manufacturers' was a director of the Manufacturer with the Temperance and General Life Mr. W. MacKenzie became a director in 1902. Mr. MacKenzie was a policy holder and it was thought that he would add strength to the board as Explaining senator Cox's interest in the company the witness said Cox in 1902 sold his interests and there was a transfer of a block of 4,000 shares to himself. Of that particular transfer 2,000 shares went to D. D. Mann and moiety to W. MacKenzie, C. J. Mo-Cuaig and W. Strachan, Montreal, had an option on some stock. The fact that a bill for the amalgamation of the Tem-perance Life and General Life was beore the house of commons at the time had nothing to do with the witness endeavoring to place some stock in the hands of MacKenzie & Mann. Me-Cuaig & Strachan held Cox's block of stock, amounting in all to about 9,000 and witness heard that they were considering its sale. Witness then became afraid that the stock might get into infriendly hands and so made himself responsible for the block excepting some 2,000 shares. D. D. Mann was urged to buy as a "family investment."

Replying to Tilley, government coun-sel, witness declared it was practically correct to say that no one person, nor group of persons, now controlled the stock of the Manufacturers' Life.

A number of the company's books were produced and Mr. Tilley looked up entries bearing on the loan of $100,-000 to MacKenzie & Mann. The loan was made on December 1st, 1902, paid back on December 26th, and loaned on January 8th, 1903. Manager Junkin admitted that the loan was thus switched backwards and forwards in order to keep it out of the company's report, because the loan did not come under the government act which has no provision for the company receiving its

In the afternoon session Mr. Junkin related that the Manufacturers' Life had sold blocks of Dominion Coal and Crow's Nest Pass stock to MacKenzie & Mann at the end of 1903 and had repurchased them in the begining of 1904 at the same figure, which transaction kept these stocks from appearing in the company's statement. MacKenzie & Mann gave the company a cheque for 443, covering the price of the stock and the advances made to them. Mr. Junkin admitted that in one other nstance, but only one, the company had made advances on unauthorized securities. He was of the opinion that if essrs. MacKenzie & Mann had not been on the hoard of directors it was doubtful if the loan would have been

In reply to Mr. Shepley, as to how viewed the general principle of the directors of the same company buying and lending on bonds of these compan-ies, Mr. Junkin explained that if the parties absolutely controlled the sale and purchase of both sides, it might lot be considered as an absolutely correct investment. Personally, he would buy any good securities on the lowest market and sell them on the highe market possible, but he confessed that a conflict of duty might arise under the conditions indicated. The transaction in which the Manu-acturers' Life had purchased stock in the Dominion Coal and the Crow's Nest had been lost, which was dealt y Mr. Tilley was again dealt with Shepley. Manager Junkin exit was merely a temporary ransaction, and said that, owing to over-investments, the company had overdrawn, and to wipe these out had btained a loan of about $200,000 from the Standard bank. Archbishop Riordan Offers the Services of the People of His Church-Confidence Expressed in the Future

San Francisco, April 27.-Harmony and pledges of good feeling marked the eetings today of the various bodies of the citizen committees and repre-sentatives of the army which are ad-ministering the airairs of San Francis-co. The last sign of confusion and mis-understanding which had existed have disappeared. The first signs of return to normal conditions were the resump-tion of street cars in certain sections and the taking out of the first permit for the erection of a modern steel struc-ture upon the ground occupied a few days ago by a less susfantial one.

are striving to bring order out of chaos and predicted a city greater, more beautiful and a more striking example of American pluck and enterprise than the old San Francisco. "Union should be our watchword," said the archbishop, "and whatever differences may have existed between the men of this community in the past should be wiped out. The Roman Catholic church is perhaps among the heaviest losers, but we are undismayed and I came here today to tell you that the noble men and women over whom I have direction are at your service." This sentence was enthusiastically cheered.

Mayor Schmitz replied in a speech equally eloquent, saying that harmony already prevailed and that whatever enmity may have been felt in the past was wiped out and the citizens of San Francisco had but one object in view—the immediate rebuilding of a newer and better municipality.

Business and industrial reports for last week, excepting in a few unimportant branches, were encouraging. The demand was satisfactory, with prices occasionally better. Breadstuffs were very firm and in many cases dearer. Maize brought higher prices, barley and oats firm; seeds and olis strong. The cotton trade was quieter in raw material. Yarns were irregular, American selling well but Egyptian doing badly. The cloth business was satisfactory. Home grown wool was scarce and prices were firm. Native and coionial sorts of yarn had a fair sale. Woollens had a satisfactory demand. The ciothing houses were fully employed.

Pig iron was in better demand; warnants improved, and dinistied iron and steel makers generally were well engaged, atthough Birmingham complained of a scarcity of fresh business. Copper firmly held, tin again advanced, with lead and spetter steady.

There will be attempts made to con-nect the present labor insurrection with the agitation against the religious sep-aration law. The only connection is the effect of a bad example. It was in dealing with the rioters who opposed the authorities taking inventories of church authorities taking inventories of church property, that the government first openly condoned violent defiance of the law.

The government is most concerned about Paris. They fear not only demonstrations by a mob, but anarchist outrages. There will be many thousands of troops in Paris by the end of the week and while some of the officers are disaffected, there is no reason to believe that the rank and file are disloyal Batavia, N. Y., April 27.—The trial of Rev. Algernon S. Crapsey, D. D. Episcopal minister, accused of heavy and violation of ordination vows, was renewed here today.

Frederick fames O'Brien, formerly an assistant of Dr. Crapsey in the Rochester church, was the first witness for the prosecution. Dr. Aledander left St. Andrew's on Jan. 30, 196. He referred to certain remarks made in the pulpit of St. Andrew's by Dr. Crapsey on Dec. 3, 1905, which was in effect that Jesus was born of parents belonging to the middle class; that he was born of a simple father and mother; that He was a son of Joseph, the carpenter, and the fact that the early Christians predicted a miraculous birth to Christ was to be regarded as one of the greatest misfortunes that could ever befall mankind.

Dr. Alerander proved an unwilling witness under cross examination. The defence brought out that he had assired to the rectorship of St. Andrew's in succession to Dr. Crapsey; that he had asked for a raise of salary a long time after the publication of Religion and Politics, and that the increase was denied shortly before he took the notes on portions of Dr. Crapsey; sermon on Dec. 3, which are incorporated in the presentiment against Dr. Crapsey, Adjurnment was then taskn.
