

It should be possible for us shortly to reach agreement in this forum on the substance, scope and modalities for a negotiating conference on Mutual and Balanced Force Reductions in Central Europe starting next Autumn. For our part Canada will attempt to play a constructive role in bring about such a conference.