

other sources, stating each separately; the amount of dividends paid, and the amount expended for repairs, and the amount of debts due by such Company, specifying the object for which such debts respectively were incurred; and every such Company shall also keep regular books 5 of account in which shall be entered a correct statement of the assets, receipts and disbursements of such Company, which shall be at all times open to the inspection and examination of any person or persons who may for that purpose be appointed by the Municipality having 10 jurisdiction as aforesaid; and every person so appointed shall have the right of taking copies or extracts from the same, and of requiring and receiving from the keeper or keepers of such books, and also from the President and each of the Directors of such Company, and all the other officers 15 and servants thereof, all such information as to such books and the affairs of such Company generally, as such person or Inspector may deem necessary, for the full and satisfactory investigation into and report upon the state of the affairs of such Company and the profits by them de- 20 rived from the Road or Work.

Road, work,
&c., vested in the Company.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That every such Road or other such work as aforesaid, and all the materials which shall, from time to time, be got or provided for constructing, building, maintaining or repairing the same, and all toll- 25 houses, gates, and other buildings constructed or acquired by and at the expense of any such Company acting under the provisions of this Act and used for their benefit and convenience, shall be vested in such Company and their successors. 30

Company may erect toll-
gates, &c.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That every such Company shall have full power and authority to erect such number of toll-gates or side-bars in, along, or across the said roads, and upon or at any work constructed under this Act respectively, and fix such tolls to be collected at each 35 gate or bar, as they may deem fit and expedient (which tolls may be altered from time to time as circumstances may require,) and to erect and maintain such toll-houses, toll-gates, and other buildings and erections as may seem necessary and convenient for the due management 40 of the business of every such Company respectively; Provided always, that no toll shall be exacted for merely crossing any road.

Proviso.

Road or work
to be completed within a
certain time,
on pain of forfeiture of privilege.

XXV. And be it enacted, That every such Company so to be incorporated as aforesaid, shall be bound and is 45 hereby required to complete each and every road not more than five miles in length, and any other work undertaken by them, and for the completion whereof they shall have become incorporated as aforesaid, within two 50 years from the day of their becoming incorporated under