

SCHEDULE C.

CITIES.

Princess street through the centre of said street to Montreal street; thence, through the centre of Montreal street aforesaid, and across the Artillery Reserve, to the present travelled road known as the "Montreal Road;" thence, through the centre of the said road to the limits of the said city; Frontenac ward consisting of all that part of the said city lying northward of the last mentioned line, running through the centre of Montreal street and the Montreal road to the city limits, and northward and eastward of a line extending from Montreal street (where it intersects Princess street) through the centre of Princess street, to the limits of the said city.

3. TORONTO, the City and Liberties thereof—To consist of all that part of the province situate within the county of York, and lying within the following limits, that is to say:

Commencing at the distance of one chain, on a course, south, sixteen degrees east from the south-westerly corner of lot number two, in the first concession, from the Bay in the township of York, in the County of York; thence southerly, in the direction of the side line between lots numbers two and three, in that concession, to the distance of five hundred feet from the point at which the said line intersects the margin of the water on the shore of Lake Ontario; thence, westerly, through the waters of Lake Ontario, following the direction of the curvatures of the shore, and keeping always at the distance of five hundred feet from the margin of the water till the point is attained, which is five hundred feet from the north-westernmost point of the Island or Peninsula, forming the harbor; thence, across the Bay or harbor of York, to a point where a line,