

An Act to repeal the sixth section of Chapter One of the Consolidated Statutes of Canada, and to make further provisions respecting the election of Members of either House of the Legislature.

WHEREAS, doubts have arisen as to the correct interpretation of the sixth section of Chapter One, of the Consolidated Statutes of Canada, intituled, An Act respecting the Legislative Council;—and whereas with the view of protecting electors and candidates for election, it is necessary to make further provision for the removal of such doubts: Therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of Canada, enacte as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The sixth section of chapter one of the Consolidated Statutes of Canada, above cited is hereby repealed, and the following is substituted therefor, and shall be read and construed as the sixth section of the said Act;

“6. No Member of one House shall be formally put in nomination for election as a Member of the other, unless he has previously resigned his seat and transmitted his declaration to that effect, duly executed in the manner prescribed by the eleventh section of chapter three of the Consolidated Statutes of Canada, to the Speaker of the House of which he was then a Member.

New Section substituted. Member must have formally resigned in one house before nomination for other.
