

Canadian Forestry Journal

VOL. VIII.

OTTAWA, JULY-AUGUST, 1912.

No. 4

THE official organ of the Canadian Forestry Association. A magazine devoted to the interests of forestry and in general to the advocacy of the wise and conservative use of the natural resources of Canada.

Annual Subscription, - $1.00
Single Copy, - - - 25c

Literary Contributions and communications regarding editorial matters together with communications regarding subscriptions, changes of address, and advertisements should be sent to the Secretary Canadian Forestry Association, Canadian Building, Ottawa, Canada.

The Canadian Forestry Journal is a good advertising medium.

Advertising rates on application.

EDITORIAL COMMITTEE:— Jas. Iawler, Editor; G. C. Piché, Associate Editor; Thos. Southworth, R. H. Campbell, J. M. Macoun, A. Bédard, F. W. H. Jacombe.

Table of Contents

	Page.
The Victoria, B. C., Convention	85
Railway Arrangements	87
Quatorzième Convention	87
The British Columbia Forest Act	88
Burning Oil in B. C.	91
Experiment Needed in Paper Making: MacMillan	92
Le Budget des Forêts en Norvège: Perrin	98
Some 1912 Forest Fires	102
The Chief Forester of B. C.	103
Appointments by Merit	104
Government Forests in Saxony: Wright	105
Aspen Tree in the Northwest: Knechtel	109
Export of Christmas Trees	110
Forestry Branch Publications	111
With the Forest Engineers	112

The Victoria, B. C. Convention.

September 4, 5 and 6 the Dates Decided Upon.

Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, Sept. 4, 5 and 6 are the dates set for the holding of the convention at Victoria, B.C. The proceedings will open with a reception on the evening of Sept. 4, and on the two following days morning and afternoon sessions, at 10 a.m. and 2.30 p.m. respectively, will be held in the commodious and centrally located hall of the Alexandra Club. On Friday evening, Sept. 6, it is expected that a banquet will be held at the Empress hotel.

The government and people of British Columbia have awakened to the value to them of their forests, and when the people of the Pacific province become roused prompt and vigorous action is the result. At