

POETRY READINGS

Poetry readings are not going to replace (though the way the Eskis are handling things) For most people, a poetry reading is the approach taken to the subject in many is just so much plain bad poetry around that be able to get into poetry as a means to achieve a different way, may be put off by encounter activity, to be enjoyed only by those who know first verse is through.

Which is too bad: because there has been and some very new and exciting things being the thing as a "Canadian poet" in existence, change Edmonton this winter.

The SUB Art Gallery, the Dept. of English, have put together, whether by accident or design, entire spectrum of poetry in Canada, from the of Dorothy Livesay to the lesser-known "experimental" will be reading their own poetry in extended to hear the poet's work as he or she feels it easier to take than a 250 seat classroom. Also own writing, rather than reading the notes of "taken" in a course.

Following is a list of those poets who Christmas. The dates noted may be changed, exact information. All U of A readings will Theatre.

On Oct 7, at 8 p.m., Al Purdy will be reading Warning, McClelland and Stewart) and poet, 1965. Mr. Purdy will read at Grant MacEwan

On Oct 13, Earle Birney will be reading at, at period of thirty years, and during that time Awards, and has written two novels plus nine of Bone Shop, published this year by McClelland Oct 14, as well.

Calgary-born Barry McKinnon reads at SUB Carcasses of Spring. Mr McKinnon will visit Grant MacEwan

On Thursday, Oct 28, a group of Canadian poet Wayne Burns will be reading at Grant MacEwan "Canada Tribe", will be stopping in Edmonton of locations in the West this Fall.

November 18 will see a group reading by Edmonton poet Stephen Scobie.

F.E. Scott is a former Dean of the McGill University the CCF Party, and an accomplished poet. He is Dorothy Livesay, who is an associate professor of Canadian literature, producing poetry, plays, radio scripts and critiques. Thirty-Nine Women Poets for Ingluv Press, will be published in 1972 by McGraw-Hill Ryerson.

Stephen Scobie, whose poetry has appeared in the Silence of the Year, is an assistant professor at the University of Alberta.

George Bowering, whose poetry is noted for its former professor from this university having Governor-General's Awards, and a novel, Minthe, will be reading at Grant MacEwan College November 18.

In addition to the above poets, Vancouver poet Nichol, and Margaret Atwood are also expected to have been finalized, but will be announced as soon as possible.

SCIENCE STUDENTS

Remember to get your tickets to

"THE WALKERS"

An S. S. A. Beer Social & Dance
Sat., Oct. 2, 8 pm Dinwoodie, SUB

Tickets at our office---Biological Sciences M-138A

AMERICAN EMPIRE

see p. 12

We are pleased to announce that in addition to our other professional services

We Now Accommodate Girls

S.U.B. BARBER SHOP

By SPORTS AREA in SUB • 433-7809

HEAR YEE... HEAR YEE...

Enjoy a break from the books with a Royal Treat at the Wonderful Kingdom of Camelot. The Shoppe is open daily - all year - afternoons & evenings. noon-10:30 p.m. daily

CAMELOT

ICE CREAM SHOPPES

11710 - 87 Ave. Just west and across from Lister Hall

CANADIAN IMPERIAL
BANK OF COMMERCE

Located on the Lower
Floor of S.U.B.

Hours:
Mon.-Thur. 10:00-5:00
Fri. 10:00-6:00

Providing Complete Banking
Services

M. R. MacKenzie, Mgr.

FIRST TIME IN EDMONTON

UNDERGROUND FESTIVAL of FILMS

one day only

Oct. 2 6:30 & 9:00

SUB THEATRE

U of ALBERTA

Students .75 Others 1.00

Tickets sold at SUB

Restricted to 18 yrs. & Over