PRIME MINISTER'S OFFICE

Subject		'a_a
		1 19 44
Date	Publication

men and women of our age, but the younger generation that is going to exercise its ballot for the first time. "If these forces can be brought together, the return of the Liberal party and the advancement of Liberal party and the advancement of Liberal principles will be assured."

In conclusion, the Premier paid great tribute to all the members of the Cabinet, particularly Hon. George P. Graham, to whose helpful guidance much of the growing success of the Canadian National Railways was due, he said. W. E. N., Sinclair, K.C., Provincial Leader, was also commended by the Federal Premier and support for him solicited. licited.

Fuller Voice for Women.

Other speakers of the day included Duncan Marshall, Federal Organizer for Ontario, who declared that "the dead hand of a Tory regime" had brought into being the U.F.O. and the Progressives; Hon. H. B. McGiverin, who also stressed the need of organization and unity; Mrs. Carpenter, Past President of the Ontario Liberal Women's Association, who asked that women be given a fuller voice in the selection of candidates, and Hon. Thomas Low, Minister of Trade and Commerce.

Hon. Mr. Low ascribed much of the success of the Liberal party to its leadership, Premier King, he declared, being an able and worthy successor to the great Liberal Chieftain, Sir Wilfrid Laurier. He thought the Prime Minister had been responsible more than any other single factor for the Liberal victory in West Hastings, another important factor being the worthiness of the in West Hastings, another important factor being the worthiness of the Liberal candidate. In any event, he said, amid laughter, Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen had not since been heard from heard from.

He also concluded with a vigorous call to organization and co-operation among Liberals, and said that such methods would bring results, even in the Tory stronghold of Toronto. The Government which could show a turnover from a $29,000,000 adverse trade balance to a favorable balance of $270,000,000 had something about which to talk, and something upon which to base an appeal for support.

Sepator Hardy Re-elected.

Senator Hardy Re-elected.

Senator Hardy Re-elected.

Faith in leadership which had borne the party through stremuous times was evinced by the re-election to the Presidency of the association of Senator A. C. Hardy, who is to be supported by a strong executive. Those who will serve on this body, as selected yesterday, will be: Mrs. A. H. Beaton, Toronto; James H. Spence, K.C., Toronto; A. J. Young, Northern Ontario, and E. S. Little, London. George Wilkie was re-elected.

Confidence in the leadership of Rt. Hon. Mackenzie King and of W. E. N. Sinclair, K.C., was repeatedly and enthusiastically expressed, more than one speaker affirming that Liberalism, strongly led, and with an ever-growing following, was in the ascendant as never before in the history of the Province. Resolutions expressing this confidence were moved by Thomas Marshall, exp.P., of Dunnville, by Miss L. Jobbitt of Peterboro', by Mrs. H. H. Carpenter of Hamilton, and by Mrs. Z. Stevens, Toronto.

Regret' at the passing since the last annual meeting of the association of the late H. Hartley Dewart, K.C., one-time Leader of Ontario Liberals, was voiced by the gathering, when an appropriately worded resolution was brought forward by J. A. Plinard, M.P.P., and Thomas Marshall. Mr. Dewart's service to the cause of Liberalism, it was stated, would be long remembered and appreciated throughout the Province.

W. L. Mackenzie King Papers Speeches-1922 - 1932

PUBLIC ARCHIVES ARCHIVES PUBLIQUES CANADA