

President advised to resume his studies for six months more, & further advised for that purpose he should proceed to the University never contemplating at the time one of them of the United States, for in contradiction to Mr Nelson's opinion, the Question has been put at rest by the Law Officers of the Crown here about two years back, that none other but a Diploma from one of the Medical Schools of Great Britain or Ireland did entitle the candidate to claim an examination or to
