9.—No person other than a duly appointed Inspector shall apply any "Government Mark" to any cases containing eggs.

10.—After the contents of any case bearing the "Government Mark" have been removed such mark shall be whitewashed. This shall be done by the person or persons removing the eggs from the case.

11.—Collectors of Customs throughout Canada shall not allow any Canadian eggs to be shipped for export out of Canada that are not marked in accordance with these regulations.

12.—These regulations, in so far as they affect export shipments, shall come into force as soon as they are published in the Canada Gazette and insofar as they affect shipments from one province to another province, shall come into force on May 1st, 1918.

HOUSING THE LAYING STOCK

A very poor poultry house. Hens cannot lay well in such a house.

Anyone intending to build a poultry house should study conditions before deciding upon any definite style of structure, for local conditions
