

FOREWORD

By LIEUT.-GEN. SIR R. E. W. TURNER, V.C.,
K.C.B., K.C.M.G., D.S.O. CHIEF OF GEN-
ERAL STAFF, CANADIAN FORCES

THE initiative, and individual bravery of the Battalion Scouts have been outstanding in the Canadian Army since the beginning of the Campaign.

It can be truthfully said, the Canadians on their front owned "No Man's Land."

This ascendancy over the Boche was gained not by reckless bravery, but by the superior intellect and resourcefulness of our men, developed by studied training.

The lessons gained on their dangerous patrols in the face of an enemy, by our gallant scouts will be invaluable in helping the Scout movement so happily revived in Canada by H. R. H. the Duke of Connaught during his term as Governor General.
