

"What countries are they sent to?" asked the girl.

"Australia, New Zealand, Argentina, Great Britain, Germany, Russia, Switzerland, Denmark, Norway, Italy, Holland, Belgium, Roumania, Austria, Asia Minor, Cape Colony, Orange River Colony and Natal. A few are even sent to Palestine, but as you can imagine the demand is not very large for them in that country."

"I suppose a great many are sent to the United States, as we buy so many from them," she remarked.

"On the contrary, our agricultural implements are completely shut out of the United States by their high tariff," said her uncle.

WOULD SHUT THEM OUT

"If I were making the Canadian tariff I would raise it high enough to shut their's out of Canada," said the girl.

"So would I," said the student. "Why it is evident that if all those imported implements were made in Canada the beneficial influence would be felt in every branch of trade. Every factory in Canada would have to increase its output and all those millions of money now sent to the United States would be put into circulation in Canada, turning over and over again as the workmen employed in the factories and those engaged
