

PEMBERTON, JOHN E.

Born at Halifax, N. S., on the 18th February, 1879. Son of Thomas Pemberton. Served in South Africa in Brabant's Horse, Intelligence Department, and as Sergeant Canadian Scouts. Was killed in action at Jagers Farm on October 27th, 1901. Buried at Tweefontein. At the time of his death he was feeling for the position of a party of train wreckers. Was mentioned in despatches for carrying despatches through the Boer lines to General Sir Charles Warren at the time of Gat Howard's death. Received a commission in the South African Constabulary, which he was about to join when he was killed.

PURCELL, EDGAR SAMUEL.

Born 22nd April, 1872, at Halifax, N. S. Son of William Albert Purcell. Served in the 66th Regiment. Served in South Africa in II Company 2nd R. C. R. Died of enteric fever 22nd April, 1900, at Bloemfontein. Buried at Bloemfontein.

PURCELL, JOHN JOSEPH.

Born 3rd of November, 1877, at Halifax, N. S. Son of James Purcell. Served in the Royal Canadian Artillery at Quebec as a Gunner. Served in South Africa in B Company 2nd R. C. R. Died of enteric fever at Orange River on the 11th day of February, 1900. Buried at Orange River.