SEPTEMBER SQUIBS.

A PRECIOUS little rascal was noticed on Jefferson Avenue, Chicago, the other day, making his best endeavor to ring a door-bell just beyond his reach. A well-known minister happened along and, with the impulses of a good Samaritan, wanted to help the boy.

"Like to ring that bell, sonny?"

"Yes, sir; but I can't reach it."

The divine stepped to the verandah and gave the door bell a vigorous pull, as he patted the interesting juvenile on the head.

"Now run like sixty!" shouted the kid, as he shot down the street at top speed. All the man could do was to laugh at this deplorable bit of worldliness and make explanation when the call was answered.

WHAT has four legs and feathers, yet is neither beast nor bird? A bed.

DR. WOOD'S Norway Pine Syrup acts on the throat and lungs like magic, curing even the severest coughs and colds.

RATHER DISTANT.—A traveller who met a countryman in mourning made the observation, "You have lost some of your friends, I see." "Yes, zur," was the reply. "Was it a near or a distant relative?" "Well, purty distant—'bout twenty-four mile."

MRS. LYNCH calls on Mrs. Maginnis. Mary Ann answers the door-bell. "Me child is yer mither in?" "No, Mrs. Lynch, she gone out."

"Bad luck to her; 'tis twinty times she goes out for wanst she comes in."

BURDOCK Blood Bitters cannot be excelled as a cure for dyspepsia.

WHAT is it you can see but cannot catch? Your shadow.

JUDGE DUFFY (to female witness): "What is your age, madam?"

Witness (hesitatingly): "I have seen sixteen summers."

Judge Duffy: "How many years were you blind?"

IVORY White Tooth Powder is fragrant and cleansing.

MRS. PORTLY POMPOUS—"Do you understand how to cook properly?"

Bridget—"Indade, mum, I do. The perlace man who used to call on me in me last place was a regular epicac."

HAGYARD'S Yellow Oil cures sprains, bruises, burns and scalds.
