

9 GEORGE V, A. 1919

- Quebec,
16th August,
1841. J. Bonner to Neilson. Submitting the facts of his complaint, for the information of the Committee appointed to investigate it.
- Quebec,
16th August,
1841. S. Macaulay to Neilson. Discussing Mr. Moffatt's Inspection Bill.
- Quebec,
17th August,
1841. The Bishop of Sidyme to Neilson. (In French.) Protesting against the Education Bill. His reasons.
- Quebec,
21st August,
1841. E. Glackmeyer to Neilson. The defects of the Trinity House Bill.
- Quebec,
31st August,
1841. E. Caron to Neilson. (In French.) Respecting the proposed amendments in the ordinance for the Incorporation of Quebec.
- Quebec,
1st Sept.,
1841. E. Glackmeyer to Neilson. Gloomy view of the legislation of the parliament of the Province of Canada—unjust to Lower Canada. Upper Canada supports legislation from a variety of motives, some of them corrupt, though it will operate injuriously against that section. Excepting the Land Granting Bill, every Government measure is bad. Some local news.
- Montreal,
3rd Sept.,
1841. L. Gosselin to Neilson. (In French). Report an assemblage of members of the old clique, to choose candidates to be imposed on the counties.
- Kingston,
25th Oct.,
1841. G. W. Wicksteed to Neilson. That Mr. Ogden who is in England, wishes his copy of the Quebec Gazette sent regularly to him.
- Cornwall,
30th Oct.,
1841. P. Vankoughnet to Neilson. Urging that the completion of the Canal, in the Cornwall section, be hastened. Steps he took to the same end, fruitlessly. Financial considerations involved. He mistrusts Harrison. There should be an election.
- 13th Novr.,
1841. Memorandum on the construction of the military road, Lancaster.
- St. Marie,
28th Nov.,
1841. P. E. Taschereau to Neilson. (In French). Asks his opinion as to advisability of taxing the people for municipal purposes. He, himself, rather opposes it.
- Kingston,
2nd Decr.,
1841. G. W. Wicksteed to Neilson. Discussion as to sufficiency of word "Governor" in a statute, to cover whoever may be administering the Government. Personal observations.
- Kingston,
10th Decr.,
1841. R. F. Gourlay to Neilson. Various personal matters.
- Trois
Rivières,
12th Decr.,
1841. P. B. Dumoulin to Neilson. (In French). Sending a copy of addresses presented to him by the public and the bar.
- Kingston,
15th Decr.,
1841. G. W. Wicksteed to Neilson. The sending of the books of the Library to Quebec. Question of a winter Session. Further discussion on the legal signification of the word "Governor." Distribution of judgeships in Lower Canada.
- Kingston,
28th Decr.,
1841. G. W. Wicksteed to Neilson. Sends list of appointments under Registry Ordinance and Judicature Act. Celebration for Prince of Wales. Gossip.
- Grand Jury
Room,
14th Jany.,
1842. Observations of the Grand Jury. (Note on margin says: N.B. This is Mr. Wilkie's handwriting, David Le Boutillier).
- Beauharnois,
17th Jany.,
1842. E. G. Wakefield to Neilson (Private and confidential). Thanks for reprinting his (Wakefield's) letter on Colonization. Mentions his disagreements with Neilson. Believes, since Union is accomplished, Neilson's views of conciliation towards French Canadians should be generally acted
