

MY HYMN THIS WEEK.

UP from the grave He arose,
With a mighty triumph o'er
His foes;
He arose a victor from the dark domain,
And He lives forever with His saints to reign!
He arose! He arose!
Hallelujah! Christ arose!

MY LESSON STORY THIS WEEK.

ALITTLE brown acorn lay on the ground under a large oak tree. It had been there quite a long time. Children who had come to gather acorns, passed it by and trod upon it, as they picked up the nice looking ones to put in their little baskets to take home. The wind blew the earth and the leaves over it, and the rain beat it down still further in the earth till it was quite out of sight. "I am no good now and this is my grave" said the little acorn to itself. But bye and bye the warm, bright sun and the gentle rain came and warmed and moistened the spot where the little acorn lay buried. Soon two tiny bright leaves came up out of the ground and got bigger and bigger, and pushed up to make room for more, till at last the little acorn that had been buried away down in the earth grew up to be a great oak tree. How it was loved! with its beautiful glossy leaves and branches spreading all around. The old people sat under its shade. The children played under it. The birds loved to sing and build their nests in its branches. Oh! little brown acorn you thought you were "no good" when you went down in the earth to your grave, but you see, you were mistaken, for had you not done so, this beautiful oak tree would not be standing here, giving comfort and shelter and joy to all.

MY QUESTIONS THIS WEEK.

1. How long was the body of Jesus in the tomb?
2. On what day did he rise from the dead?
3. Who went first to the tomb?
4. What did the angels say to them?
