

Colorado Crops

Where Cheap Land and
"Scientific Agriculture"
are Making Farmers Rich

Look at the baskets and alfalfa stacks! No exaggeration. We were mighty careful when we made these figures. They are fair, average results gained by scientific farming in Elbert County, on and around the Great Bison Ranch which is now being sold in bargain figures $8.50 to $10 per acre. Within a few years values will increase 50 percent. Soil Cultiva is doing wonders. It is the essence of practical agriculture. It's up to you to

"Hurry to Colorado" Now

Don't wait and ponder and wonder and hesitate till this exceptional opportunity is gone, hustle up and get out into this new country. Breathe the life-giving ozone from the great Rockies. One area of these wealth-producing farms, sell your crops in Denver or Omaha or St. Louis. Two railroads within 5 miles, new gas has just been surveyed through the ranch.

Rainfall is over 20 inches annually; water is near surface for wells. Air is invigorating. 12 or 13 diseases are practically unknown. Schools and churches easily reached; soil is deep, sandy loam, mellow and easily handled. You don't need much money to buy. We take part in cash and treat you for the rest. If you have enough cash for a small comfortable house and a few out buildings, a team of horses, ten cows and five brood sows you can clear nine a year on one of our 40-acre tracts. How can you double quickly? This year—Send for Booklet fresh from press

"The New Colorado"

It answers questions like the following and scores of others: How much cash you'll need, how to divide it, where to get building materials, coal and wood. It shows map of ranch and distance to the nearest towns, big city markets and shipping points. It explains all about rainfall, attractiveness of climate; why you'll be glad after you come; how long you'll need to wait for profits; social advantages with schools, churches, etc. It's a book just brimming over with accurate, truthful and reasonable facts for the settler's guidance. It's yours for a postal. Sit down right off and write for it. Address quick, Dept. 12.
