

The Twentieth Century Is Canada's

Preparing for the Harvest

Do you know that the present rush of settlers to Canada represents a New Settler Every Minute of our waking hours? Have you ever considered what makes Canada such an attractive field for settlement?

The Canada of to-day is a land of Peace and Plenty, a place of Sunshine and Big Crops, a country whose soil spells wheat and out of whose farms thousands are growing rich. Already Canada's per capita wealth is the greatest in the world.

From Bonnie Scotland—Coming to Canada to join Husband and Father who came out a year ago.

From the overcrowded cities of the Mother-country with their limited opportunities, this family has gone to the broad acres and the golden opportunities of Canada—Britain's Oldest and Nearest Colony.

Free Land in the Western Provinces is Still Offered.

Improved Farms may be Procured at Low Cost.

A Promise of Home with the Prospect of Independence.

Can you afford to miss it?
